

The Scarlet Letter

by Nathaniel Hawthorne

Nathaniel Hawthorne's American classic The Scarlet Letter explores the complicated effects of secrecy and guilt in seventeenth-century Boston, a city governed by strict Puritan law.

One of the first American psychological novels, the story relates the events surrounding the life of Hester Prynne, a Puritan woman whom the town convicts of adultery. As part of her punishment, she is forced to wear a scarlet letter "A" for all to see. Hawthorne sympathetically depicts Hester's struggle wearing the letter, her challenges raising a daughter as a single mother, and her relationship with the Reverend Arthur Dimmesdale, her former lover. Hester's dignity and grace in spite of her rejected position sharply contrasts with the deceit and shame of Dimmesdale, whose guilt and hidden sin provide the driving tension of the novel.

Hawthorne relates the events of The Scarlet Letter through an unnamed narrator who discovers the tattered cloth "A" and a parchment with part of Hester Prynne's story on it. The unnamed narrator's rendition of the tale situates it in a shadowy and obscure past that separates readers from present reality. This frame story makes it easier for readers to suspend their disbelief in interpreting the mysterious and otherworldly elements present in the narrative.

Creating Atmosphere Through Diction

This lesson plan focuses on Hawthorne's diction and its contribution to the atmosphere in the novel. Students will identify the literal and connotative meanings of words found in passages from the novel and examine how they enhance the mysterious, supernatural atmosphere in the text. They will also identify different forms of these words, their synonyms and antonyms, and how they are used in context (parts of speech). In studying Hawthorne's diction, students will be better able to identify and describe how Hawthorne portrays the three scaffold scenes in the novel.
