Dobes, George Argyrous, Joanne Leung, 2016-04-28 All is not well with the evaluation of government programs and projects Resources available to any society are limited If governments are to increase the well being of their citizens they must be able to select and implement the socially most beneficial projects and policies But many government agencies lack the expertise to carry out a cost benefit analysis or even to commission one Commercial consultants on the other hand often have some analytical expertise but are not immune from adopting approaches that accommodate the proclivities of their client agencies In order to increase analytical rigour and methodological consistency this publication urges the adoption of a belts and braces set of protocols for use in project evaluation Construction Law Julian Bailey, 2016-07-15 Now in its second edition Construction Law is the standard work of reference for busy construction law practitioners and it will support lawyers in their contentious and non contentious practices worldwide Published in three volumes it is the most comprehensive text on this subject and provides a unique and invaluable comparative multi jurisdictional approach This book has been described by Lord Justice Jackson as a tour de force and by His Honour Humphrey Lloyd QC as seminal and definitive This new edition builds on that strong foundation and has been fully updated to include extensive references to very latest case law as well as changes to statutes and regulations The laws of Hong Kong and Singapore are also now covered in detail in addition to those of England and Australia Practitioners as well as interested academics and post graduate students will all find this book to be an invaluable guide to the many facets of construction law Cyber law in Australia George Cho, 2020-04-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical guide to cyber law the law affecting information and communication technology ICT in Australia covers every aspect of the subject including intellectual property rights in the ICT sector relevant competition rules drafting and negotiating ICT related contracts electronic transactions privacy issues and computer crime Lawyers who handle transnational matters will appreciate the detailed explanation of specific characteristics of practice and procedure Following a general introduction the book assembles its information and guidance in seven main areas of practice the regulatory framework of the electronic communications market software protection legal protection of databases or chips and other intellectual property matters contracts with regard to software licensing and network services with special attention to case law in this area rules with regard to electronic evidence regulation of electronic signatures electronic banking and electronic commerce specific laws and regulations with respect to the liability of network operators and service providers and related product liability protection of individual persons in the context of the processing of personal data and confidentiality and the application of substantive criminal law in the area of ICT Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for business and legal professionals alike Lawyers representing parties with interests in Australia will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative law in this relatively new and challenging field

Multilevel Regulation of Military and Security Contractors Christine Bakker, Mirko Sossai, 2012-02-10 The outsourcing of military and security services is the object of intense legal debate States employ private military and security companies PMSCs to perform functions previously exercised by regular armed forces and increasingly international organisations NGOs and business corporations do the same to provide security particularly in crisis situations Much of the public attention on PMSCs has been in response to incidents in which PMSC employees have been accused of violating international humanitarian law Therefore initiatives have been launched to introduce uniform international standards amidst what is currently very uneven national regulation This book analyses and discusses the interplay between international European and domestic regulatory measures in the field of PMSCs It presents a comprehensive assessment of the existing domestic legislation in EU Member States and relevant Third States and identifies implications for future international regulation The book also addresses the crucial questions whether and how the EU can potentially play a more active future role in the regulation of PMSCs to ensure compliance with human rights and international humanitarian law
