Communion Of Churches And Petrine Ministry:

Communion of Churches and Petrine Ministry Group of Farfa Sabina, 2014-12-25 The Roman Catholic papacy has long been a thorny issue dividing the ecumenical church In this book several outstanding Lutheran and Catholic theologians known collectively as the Group of Farfa Sabina present the results of their five year dialogue showing how the papal Petrine ministry might actually serve to unify the worldwide communion of churches Offering biblical historical and canonical analyses of key Vatican texts this volume opens up paths to new and surprising Lutheran Catholic convergences The volume as a whole reflects the mutual commitment of Farfa Sabina members to shaping declarations of intent into effective realities

The Petrine Ministry Walter Kasper, 2006 This collection of papers has its origin in the encyclical letter Ut unum sint no 95 and the request of Pope John Paul II to study the question of the Petrine ministry with other Christians with a view to seeking together of course the forms in which this ministry may accomplish a service of love recognized by all concerned After the promulgation of the encyclical in 1995 the theme of the Petrine ministry in its implications for dialogue with the other churches and ecclesial communities resonated throughout the ecumenical community and in studies conferences and courses at institutes and research centers focusing on the theological and historical aspects of the issue The symposium presented here organized by the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity is aimed at furthering study of the role of the Bishop of Rome in the perspective of the search for Christian unity Catholic experts and delegates representing a range of Orthodox churches took part in the closed door symposium at which eight speakers presented papers dealing with each theme from the Catholic and Orthodox points of view

Communio Sanctorum, 2004 This is the product of the official German Catholic Lutheran Dialogue and the first major Lutheran Catholic ecumenical statement since the ground breaking Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification in 1999 It focuses on the ecclesiastical issues that the Joint Declaration identified as the remaining obstacles to Lutheran Catholic communion The metaphor of the Church as the Communion of Saints serves as a framework for addressing ecumenical issues such as sacraments ministry the role of the Church in salvation and the papacy
