

Guided Reading Chapter 27: Imperialism

Directions: Using the readings, the highlights, answer each of the following questions thoroughly in paragraph form.

1. Explain why the United States suddenly showed interest in imperialism and how this interest led to the Spanish-American War.
During the early 1890s, American businessmen and politicians began to push for the United States to take a more active role in the world. They felt that the United States should not only be a world power but also a world leader. They wanted to show the world that the United States was a serious power and not just a rising power. This led to the United States showing interest in imperialism and the Spanish-American War.
2. Explain how the United States showed its support for the Philippines and how this led to the Philippine-American War.
The United States showed its support for the Philippines in several ways. First, it sent a commission to investigate the situation in the Philippines. Second, it sent a fleet of ships to the Philippines. Third, it sent a large number of troops to the Philippines. Fourth, it sent a large number of ships to the Philippines. Fifth, it sent a large number of ships to the Philippines. Sixth, it sent a large number of ships to the Philippines. Seventh, it sent a large number of ships to the Philippines.
