 1934 the idea of modern womanhood transforms from virgin savior to mother of the nation to manager of modern family life and finally to an embodiment of the capitalist West fully armed with sexuality and glamour Each chapter examines representative periodicals to explore how their content on a range of women s issues helped formulate and prescribe women s roles defining what would later become appropriate knowledge for women in the new modern context Lee shows how in various ways this prescribing was gendered how it would sometimes promote the modern and at other times critique it She offers a close look at primary sources not previously introduced in English exploring the subject and genre of each work the script used and the way it categorized or defined a given women s issue By identifying and dissecting the various agendas and agents behind the scenes she is able to shed light on the complex and changing relationship between domesticity gender
