The Common Law Jurisprudence of the Conflict of Laws Sarah McKibbin, Anthony Kennedy, 2023-05-04 This book presents a collection of leading common law cases in private international law ranging from the 18th to the 21st century The cases traverse issues of jurisdiction choice of law and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments Questions of marital validity domicile foreign immovable property and choice of law in contract are just some of the topics that this collection examines The unusual factual situations of some 18th and 19th century English cases also reveal compelling human interest stories and political controversies worthy of further exploration Drawing on a diverse team of contributors this edited collection showcases the research of eminent conflicts scholars together with emerging scholars from the United Kingdom Australia Canada Ireland and South Africa

The Class Action in Common Law Legal Systems Rachael Mulheron, 2004-11-15 Multi party litigation is a world wide legal process and the class action device is one of its best known manifestations As a means of providing access to justice and achieving judicial economies the class action is gaining increasing endorsement particularly given the prevalence of mass consumerism of goods and services and the extent to which the activities and decisions of corporations and government bodies can affect large numbers of people The primary purpose of this book is to compare and contrast the class action models that apply under the federal regimes of Australia and the United States and the provincial regimes of Ontario and British Columbia in Canada While the United States model is the most longstanding there have now been sufficient judicial determinations under each of the studied jurisdictions to provide a constructive basis for comparison In the context of the drafting and application of a workable class action framework it is apparent that similar problems have been confronted across these jurisdictions which in turn promotes a search for assistance in the experience and legal analysis of others The book is presented in three Parts The first Part deals with the class action concept and its alternatives and also discusses and critiques the stance of England where the introduction of the opt out class action model has been opposed The second Part focuses upon the various criteria and factors governing commencement of a class action encompassing matters such as commonality superiority suitability and the class representative Part 3 examines matters pertaining to conduct of the action itself such as becoming a class member notice requirements settlement judgments and costs and fees The book is written to have practical utility for a wide range of legal practitioners and professionals such as academics and students of comparative civil procedure and multi party litigation litigation lawyers who may use the reference materials cited to the benefit of their own class action clients and those charged with law reform who look to adopt the most workable and avoid the unworkable features in class action models elsewhere

Tribunals in the Common Law World Robin Creyke, 2008 Tribunals are a flexible method of adjudication that hear disputes between citizens and by citizens against government They come in diverse forms and their adjudications far outnumber those of courts For most people tribunals are the face of justice Increasing attention is being paid to tribunal procedures what decisions they can make and who are appointed as tribunal members This book provides a contemporary snapshot of tribunals and tribunal jurisprudence in the common law world with contributions and comparative studies from Australia Canada New Zealand and the United Kingdom Contributions are drawn from a distinguished cast of international tribunal experts judges and practitioners

Arbitrability Fabien Gélinas, Leyla Bahmany, 2023-11-17 As simple as the arbitrability question might appear namely what types of issues may and may not be submitted to arbitration for a legal system to set a clear and consistent approach to arbitration it must consider many complicated factors that relate to public policy and economic priorities as well as international relations This comprehensive precise and practical book identifies and analyzes the fundamentals of and major approaches to arbitrability in the current international context The authors focus on nine major arbitration jurisdictions the United States Canada France England and Wales Switzerland Germany China Mainland Hong Kong and Singapore with meticulous attention to each jurisdiction's pertinent case law and legislative framework as well as relevant commentary For each jurisdiction the arbitrability of disputes in the following fields of law is discussed antitrust competition bankruptcy insolvency consumer corporate family domestic relations intellectual property copyright patent and trademark labor employment securities and torts Based on the jurisdiction by jurisdiction analysis the authors identify key areas in which the selected jurisdictions share similarities and evince differences with respect to each of the above mentioned fields With a structure that enables readers to easily locate what they are looking for and gives clear cut answers this unique book fully elucidates the notion of arbitrability by identifying the key concepts the applicable rules and different criteria for arbitrability and by explaining how different jurisdictions deal with specific types of disputes It will be welcomed by counsel arbitrators judges students and academics active in international arbitration and the enforcement of arbitral awards
