Lasley,Thomas J. Matczynski,1997 Strategies for Teaching in a Diverse Society solves a crucial problem encountered by today's teacher educators. How can we adequately prepare teachers to deal with the variety of students that they will teach? Lasley and Matczynski are the first to successfully address the central question about how multicultural and diversity coverage can be incorporated into the instructional areas of education. Strategies for Teaching in a Diverse Society illustrates that attention to individual and cultural differences is a vital step to truly successful teacher preparation. It offers instructors great flexibility with actual teacher examples from all content areas for the elementary, middle, and secondary school levels. Explanations for each method of instruction are supported by a plethora of case studies applicable to diversity issues, evaluation criteria, and sample lesson plans. Primary Plans Elizabeth P.
