Chapter 8: Section Objectives & Sections

CHAPTER OBJECTIVE: Analyze ways that ancient African cultures adapted to their harsh environments, established powerful kingdoms, and spread cultures through major migrations.

Chapter	Section Objectives	Section Key Ideas
Section 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify the different geographic regions of Africa and explain how early Africans adapted to their environments.• Summarize the achievements of early West African societies.• Trace growth of African ironworking.	African peoples developed many different ways of life as they adapted to many different environments.
Section 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Summarize the causes and effects of human migration.• Describe the Bantu migrations into the southern half of Africa.	Throughout history, various peoples have desired to leave their homes and move to a new land.
Section 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Explain how maritime trade led to Aksum's growth.• Give examples of Aksum's achievements.• Explain the effects of the Muslim invasion of Aksum.	The kingdom of Aksum in East Africa became an important part of trade between different nations. It also adopted Christianity as its religion.

Chapter Review Questions:

1. Analyzing Causes and Recognizing Effects - What impact did geography have on the way human societies developed in Africa?
2. Determining Main Ideas - What features of culture are common to people south of the Sahara?
3. Clarifying - Give an example of one of the three reasons that people move from their home to a new land.
4. Analyzing Causes and Recognizing Effects - Why did the Bantu peoples move their homes?
5. Drawing Conclusions - Why was Aksum important?

Culture and Religion in Merovingian Gaul, A.D.

481-751 Yitzhak Hen, 2023-09-29 Although often depicted as a barbaric and uncivilised society in the full pejorative meaning of these words Merovingian Gaul was clearly a Christian society and a direct continuation of the Roman civilisation in terms of social standards morals and culture Using insights provided by social history archaeology palaeography and anthropology this book studies the problem of Christianisation in early Medieval Gaul from a cultural point of view While exploiting a huge range of primary and secondary material Dr Hen does not confine himself to a functional analysis of various cultural and religious activities in Merovingian Gaul but goes on to assess the consequences and implications of such activities for the people themselves and for the subsequent developments in the Carolingian period

Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies Patrick D. Murphy, 2009-07-15 In Ecocritical Explorations Patrick D. Murphy explores environmental literature and environmental cultural issues through both theoretical and applied criticism. He engages with the concepts of referentiality, simplicity, the nation state, and virtual reality in the first section of the book and then goes on to interrogate these issues in contemporary environmental literature, both American and international. He concludes his argument with a discussion of the larger frames of family dynamics and unnatural disasters such as hurricanes and global warming, ending with a chapter on the integration of scholarship and pedagogy in the classroom with reference to his own teaching experiences. Murphy's study provides a wide-ranging discussion of contemporary literature and cultural phenomena through the lens of ecological literary criticism, giving attention to both theoretical issues and applied critiques. In particular, he looks at popular literary genres such as mystery and science fiction as well as actual disasters and disaster scenarios. Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies is a timely contribution to ecological literary criticism and an insightful look into how we represent our relationship with the environment.

The Anthropology of Latin America and the Caribbean Harry Sanabria, 2015-09-16 The first single-authored comprehensive introduction to major contemporary research trends, issues, and debates on the anthropology of Latin America and the Caribbean. The text provides wide and historically informed coverage of key facets of Latin American and Caribbean societies and their cultural and historical development, as well as the roles of power and inequality. Cymeme Howe, Visiting Assistant Professor of Cornell University, writes: "The text moves well and builds over time, paying close attention to balancing both the Caribbean and Latin America as geographic regions, Spanish and non-Spanish speaking countries, and historical and contemporary issues in the field. I found the geographic breadth to be especially impressive." Jeffrey W. Mantz of California State University Stanislaus notes that the contents reflect the insights of an anthropologist who knows Latin America intimately and extensively.

Cultural Theory and Popular Culture John Storey, 2006 In this new edition of his widely adopted Cultural Theory and Popular Culture: An Introduction, John Storey has extensively revised the text throughout. Like previous editions, the book presents a clear and critical survey of competing theories of and various approaches to popular culture. New to this edition: Extensively revised, rewritten, and updated. Improved and expanded content throughout, including a new chapter on psychoanalysis and a new section on post-Marxism and the global postmodern. Closer explicit links to the new edition companion reader Cultural Theory and Popular Culture: A Reader. More illustrative diagrams and images. Fully revised, improved, and updated companion web site. Ideal for courses in cultural studies, media studies, communication studies, sociology of culture, popular culture, visual studies, cultural criticism.

The Human Mosaic Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov, 2005-08-19 Carrying forward the legacy of original author Terry Jordan-Bychkov, Mona Domosh, and new coauthors Roderick Neumann and Patricia Price offer this thoroughly updated new edition of the acclaimed introduction to the cultural geography of the world today. The result is a text that maintains its original distinctive style while addressing contemporary issues and situations that students care about most importantly: the continuing phenomenon of globalization The Thematic Approach of The Human Mosaic The Human Mosaic introduces five themes in the opening chapter culture region cultural diffusion cultural ecology cultural interaction and cultural landscape then uses those themes as a framework for the topical chapters that follow Each theme is applied to a variety of geographical topics demography agriculture the city religion language ethnicity politics industry folk and popular culture Through this organization students are able to relate to the most important aspects of cultural geography at every point in the text
