Enhancing employee satisfaction: Continuous communication with the employees through short reports increases their level of job satisfaction.

How to Write a Short Report?

Frequently, the goal of a short report lies in a brief written communication. Such paper may be completed in the form of a memo (written within your company or department) and letter (written for outside your company). Usually, the short report structure supposes one page of text (two pages maximum).

The given papers are mainly used by various periodicals in order to share information about a currently trending topic. Short reports are nearly the same as longer ones, though they do not include any conclusions and opinions of the author. These papers are meant to give you important information about a certain topic.

Short Report Format

If you want to know what is a short report format, it is better to remember that such works comprise four parts: summary or overview, background information, goal, results, and conclusion. Below you will have a possibility to learn about all these parts one by one.
