GUIDED READING Reforming the Industrial World

A. Determining Main Ideas As you read about the age of reforms, take notes to answer the questions about the ideas of the philosophers and reformers of the Industrial Revolution.

The Economic Philosophers	What were the basic ideas of each philosopher?
1. Adam Smith	He thought that economic liberty guaranteed economic progress. Government should not interfere the economy.
2. Thomas Malthus	Population are increasing more rapidly than food supply, and people were becoming poor.
3. David Ricardo	He believed that a permanent underclass will always be poor. Wages will decrease as population increase.

The Social Reformers	How did each reformer try to correct the ills of industrialization?
4. John Stuart Mill	Mill wished to help working people with policies that would lead to a more equal division of profits.
5. Robert Owen	He improved the working condition for his employees, and created a nice living place in in New Harmony.
6. Charles Fourier and Henri de Saint-Simon	They had the idea of socialism which the factors of production are owned by the public.
7. Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels	He introduced a radical type of socialism called Marxism, and predicted that the workers will overthrow the owners.
8. William Wilberforce	He led the fight of abolition to end the slave trade in Britain.
9. Jane Addams	She ran settlement houses to help the poor in the united states.
10. Horace Mann	He was one of the most prominent us reformers, she favored free education for children.

Rössner,2020-02-27 History and Economic Life offers students a wide ranging introduction to both quantitative and qualitative approaches to interpreting economic history sources from the Middle Ages to the Twentieth Century Having identified an ever widening gap between the use of qualitative sources by cultural historians and quantitative sources by economic historians the book aims to bridge the divide by making economic history sources more accessible to students and the wider public and highlighting the need for a complementary rather than exclusive approach Divided into two parts the book begins by equipping students with a toolbox to approach economic history sources considering the range of sources that might be of use and introducing different ways of approaching them The second part consists of case studies that examine how economic historians use such sources helping readers to gain a sense of context and understanding of how these sources can be used The book thereby sheds light on important debates both within and beyond the field and highlights the benefits gained when combining qualitative and quantitative approaches to source analysis Introducing sources often avoided in culturally minded history or statistically minded economic history courses respectively and advocating a combined quantitative and qualitative approach it is an essential resource for students undertaking source analysis within the field Banking World ,1995 The Christian Century ,1933 Resources in Education ,1983 ACE Bulletin ,1994 The Accountant's Magazine ,1988 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1972
