The book synthesises current knowledge and cutting edge thinking from the diverse branches of practice and learning relevant to protected area governance and management. It is intended as an investment in the skills and competencies of people and consequently the effective governance and management of protected areas for which they are responsible now and into the future. The global success of the protected area concept lies in its shared vision to protect natural and cultural heritage for the long term and organisations such as International Union for the Conservation of Nature are a unifying force in this regard. Nonetheless protected areas are a socio political phenomenon and the ways that nations understand govern and manage them is always open to contest and debate. The book aims to enlighten educate and above all to challenge readers to think deeply about protected areas their future and their past as well as their present. The book has been compiled by 169 authors and deals with all aspects of protected area governance and management. It provides information to support capacity development training of protected area field officers managers in charge and executive level managers. Nature, 1892
