TERROIR: A wine having flavors (and aromas) that are indicative of the location where it was grown.

This model is based on the Table 5 from "Analyzing the US retail wine market using price and consumer segmentation models," AWRP (2005), with inflation accounted for (2005–2016) and consideration taken from price observations from online retailers (klines.com, wine.com, totalwine.com and winelibrary.com). We are not economists, this is purely for observation and not official reference.
