Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Claire Mouflard, 2020-11-17 In Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Mouflard argues that the identity politics surrounding the immigration discourse of early twenty first century France were reflected in the marketing and editing practices of the Metropole's key publishers specifically with regards to non white French women's literature Echoing the utopic Black Blanc Beur model of integration which surfaced during the 1998 soccer World Cup select publishers fashioned unofficial literary categories based on neocolonial racial and gender stereotypes either lauding integrated Beur authors or exploiting Black political dissenters Concurrently metropolitan women writers in their autobiographies autofictions and manifestoes problematized notions of French multiculturalism and literary hierarchies thereby exposing the dangers of utopian thinking Mouflard ultimately reveals that the absence of the Franco Vietnamese identity from the Black Blanc Beur paradigm enabled authors of Southeastern Asian origin to establish themselves outside of the era's reductive multicultural utopia within a realm directly adjacent to littérature française if not in a newly designed truly multicultural French literature category Overall Mouflard's research highlights the discrepancies between France's official discourse on immigration and the actual identity formation processes created by the institutions and exploited by influential publishers in the years leading to the historic 2005 banlieue civil unrest

Livres hebdo, 2008-02 Investigating Simenon Russell Campbell, 2022-10-04 For nearly a century the work of Belgian crime writer and psychological novelist Georges Simenon creator of Chief Inspector Maigret has captivated readers worldwide This investigation situates Simenon's work in its historical context and interprets it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality as well as his political stance that stems from his petit bourgeois upbringing This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name including several that have never been translated into English as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works

Bulletin critique du livre français, 1968 Out of the Dark Night Achille Mbembe, 2021-01-19 Achille Mbembe is one of the world's most profound critics of colonialism and its consequences a major figure in the emergence of a new wave of French critical theory His writings examine the complexities of decolonization for African subjectivities and the possibilities emerging in its wake In Out of the Dark Night he offers a rich analysis of the paradoxes of the postcolonial moment that points toward new liberatory models of community humanity and planetarity In a nuanced consideration of the African experience Mbembe makes sweeping interventions into debates about citizenship identity democracy and modernity He eruditely ranges across European and African thought to provide a powerful assessment of common ways of writing and thinking about the world Mbembe criticizes the blinders of European intellectuals analyzing France's failure to heed postcolonial critiques of ongoing exclusions masked by pretenses of universalism He develops a new reading of African modernity that further develops the notion of Afropolitanism a novel way of being in the world that has arisen in decolonized Africa in the midst of both destruction and the birth of new societies Out of the Dark Night reconstructs critical theory's historical and philosophical framework for understanding colonial and postcolonial events and expands our sense of the futures made possible by decolonization
