Experiences of Migration Odile Heynders, 2025-07-03 In the context of heated political and societal debates about migrants refugees and asylum seekers this book asks what singular people on migratory trajectories are experiencing and what their motives and hopes for travelling are The answers to this question will be found in literary fiction the book's main thesis being that it is in fiction in the creative invention of characters in time and space that we can find in depth knowledge on migratory experiences Although in most migration studies literature is left out because it is considered the opposite of academic reasoning this project starts in literary fiction and relates the imaginary work to concepts and topics discussed in migration studies hospitality asylum procedures in a city courage female migrants hope re settlement home country return migration In the interconnection of literary fiction and interdisciplinary research sensate knowledge is built as the interconnection of senses and intellectual thinking

Migration and Return in Modern African Literature Ernest Cole, 2025 Using close readings of nine novels by African or African descended novelists this book examines three phases of African migration departure disillusionment and the impulse to return The experiences of African migrants in the diaspora are deeply inflected by the condition of living as Black bodies in white spaces In this work author Ernest Cole examines closely the narratives of migration and return presented in nine powerful novels by authors who include Chimamanda Adichie NoViolet Bulawayo Teju Cole and others The novels reveal a reversal of expectations that migrants from Africa experience upon arrival in the West a reversal prompted in part by the racial prejudice they are confronted with as Black individuals As the author notes the novels also illustrate the desire to return to the homeland as a better alternative to the precarious life in the West even though such a move is not without its complications The study is divided into three parts with seven chapters The first two chapters deal with the reasons for the departure of migrants from the continent the next two depict the experiences of migrants in the West and the last three focus on contemplations of the return journey home Collectively the chapters lay out three phases in the migration process departure from home disillusionment in the West and return to the country of origin Within this framework the book uses displacement and dislocation to examine a host of themes social alienation alterity and the precarity of Africans in the diaspora
