2. page 8

For this paragraph, physical appearance is important, but there are other things that also go into making a good first impression. For example, I always pay attention to my <sup>body</sup> language. I am always aware of my posture, and I understand that the first law is important. Also, I always call them by name. I am always aware of the situation about others and speak the truth. In fact, I am always aware of the situation about the other side.

In the past, I didn't pay much attention to body language. However, I am now paying attention to my body language. I am now aware of my posture, and I am always aware of the situation about others and speak the truth. In fact, I am always aware of the situation about the other side.
