Henry's flirting and her need for a husband to provide for her and her three kids she gave in and married him in late 1924. It wasn't about love because she said she could never love another man after Abe; it was just about the kids and both of their needs to support them. Eve decided to move to John Henry's house and Granny Nettie came with them to watch the kids during the day while he worked the fields, and Eve continued to work at the Holcomb's house. At first the arrangement worked great until the spring of 1925 when John Henry made the boys go to the fields with him to work. Most days the kids went to the Denmark School for Colored Children. Eve's sons Joshua called Josh and Daniel called Danny, and John Henry's son Bankston called Banks would go to the fields some days, but John Henry began to make them stay out of school and began to treat Eve's sons differently.
