Connected Sociologies Gurminder K. Bhambra, 2014-10-23 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com This book outlines what theory for a global age might look like positing an agenda for consideration contestation and discussion and a framework for the research led volumes that follow in the series Gurminder K Bhambra takes up the classical concerns of sociology and social theory and shows how they can be rethought through an engagement with postcolonial studies and decoloniality two of the most distinctive critical approaches of the past decades

Democracy and Revolutionary Politics Neera Chandhoke, 2015-02-26 Democracy and political violence can hardly be considered conceptual siblings at least at first sight Democracy allows people to route their aspirations demands and expectations of the state through peaceful methods violence works outside these prescribed and institutionalized channels in public spaces in the streets in the forests and in inhospitable terrains But can committed democrats afford to ignore the fact that violence has become a routine way of doing politics in countries such as India By exploring the concept of political violence from the perspective of critical political theory Neera Chandhoke investigates its nature justification and contradictions She uses the case study of Maoist revolutionaries in India to globalize and relocate the debate alongside questions of social injustice exploitation oppression and imperfect democracies As such this is an important and much needed contribution to the dialogue surrounding revolutionary violence

De-centering queer theory Bogdan Popa, 2021-12-14 De centering queer theory seeks to reorient queer theory to a different conception of bodies and sexuality derived from Eastern European Marxism The book articulates a contrast between the concept of the productive body which draws its epistemology from Soviet and avant garde theorists and Cold War gender which is defined as the social construction of the body The first part of the book concentrates on the theoretical and visual production of Eastern European Marxism which proposed an alternative version of sexuality to that of western liberalism In doing so it offers a historical angle to understand the emergence not only of an alternative epistemology but also of queer theory's vocabulary The second part of the book provides a Marxist anti capitalist archive for queer studies which often neglects to engage critically with its liberal and Cold War underpinnings

The Black Pacific Robbie Shilliam, 2015-02-26 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Why have the struggles of the African Diaspora so resonated with South Pacific people How have Maori Pasifika and Pakeha activists incorporated the ideologies of the African diaspora into their struggle against colonial rule and racism and their pursuit of social justice This book challenges predominant understandings of the historical linkages that make up the post colonial world The author goes beyond both the domination of the Atlantic viewpoint and the correctives now being offered by South Pacific and Indian Ocean studies to look at how the Atlantic ecumene is refracted in and has influenced the Pacific ecumene The book is empirically rich using extensive interviews participation and archival work and focusing on the politics of Black Power and the Rastafari faith It is also theoretically sophisticated offering an innovative hermeneutical critique of post colonial and subaltern studies The Black Pacific is essential reading for students and scholars of Politics International Relations History and Anthropology interested in anti colonial struggles anti racism and the quests for equality justice freedom and self determination

The fringes of citizenship Julija Sardelic,2021-07-27 This book presents a socio legal enquiry into the civic marginalisation of Roma in Europe Instead of looking only at Roma s position as migrants an ethnic minority or a socio economically disadvantage group it considers them as European citizens questioning why they are typically used to describe exceptionalities of citizenship in developed liberal democracies rather than as evidence for how problematic the conceptualisation of citizenship is at its core Developing novel theoretical concepts the book investigates a variety of topics including migration and free movement statelessness and school segregation It argues that while Roma are unique as a minority the treatment that marginalises them is not This is demonstrated by comparing their position to that of other marginalised minorities around the globe An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Bordering intimacy Joe Turner,2020-09-29 Bordering intimacy explores the interconnected role of borders and dominant forms of family intimacy in the governance of postcolonial states Combining a historical investigation with postcolonial decolonial and black feminist theory the book reveals how the border policies of the British and other European empires have been reinvented for the twenty first century through appeals to protect and sustain family life appeals that serve to justify and obfuscate the continued organisation of racialised violence The book examines the continuity of colonial rule in numerous areas of contemporary government including family visa regimes the policing of sham marriages counterterrorism strategies deprivation of citizenship policing tactics and integration policy An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Race and the Yugoslav region Catherine Baker,2018-03-22 This is the first book to situate the territories and collective identities of former Yugoslavia within the politics of race not just ethnicity and the history of how ideas of racialised difference have been translated globally The book connects critical race scholarship global historical sociologies of race in translation and south east European cultural critique to show that the Yugoslav region is deeply embedded in global formations of race In doing this it considers the everyday geopolitical imagination of popular culture the history of ethnicity nationhood and migration transnational formations of race before and during state socialism including the Non Aligned Movement and post Yugoslav discourses of security migration terrorism and international intervention including the War on Terror and the present refugee crisis An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence
