Reframing the "Desert Frontier" Rebecca Repper, M.C. Bishop, Dr Robert Bewley, 2025-03-01 The eastern frontier of the Roman Empire its network of roads trade routes towns and forts is often conceived of as an edge of both empire and civilisation but this borderland is also part of a rich cultural landscape Our awareness and appreciation of these cultures has increased dramatically over the course of the last century Scholarship has deepened methods have advanced and perspectives have shifted Across 20 chapters Reframing the Desert Frontier offers new insights into the rich cultural history of this region through the re examination of existing material such as archives historical accounts and previous surveys and through the use of novel archaeological approaches The bringing together of different methodological approaches to the archaeology of the region in a single volume highlights synergies and offers important comparisons for archaeologists to consider This volume highlights the work of Emeritus Professor David Kennedy whose contribution to the study of the Roman army the archaeology of Jordan and aerial archaeology has inspired and enhanced multiple projects that have reframed this so called desert frontier Reframing the Desert Frontier encapsulates the enriched view of this ancient region generated by new techniques of survey and analysis changed perspectives on older materials a more intense engagement with the rural landscapes surrounding ancient towns and the addition of new discoveries that alter previous consensus Warman's

Leviton, 2013-07-18 The councilors had placed a book upon the table its cover pale blue edged in silver The title was The Theosophon They slid it towards me Philomena Wilcox Ph D retired professor of music pianist passionate devotee of Russian composers like Scriabin and Rachmaninov thinks she is merely editing a series of prolix journals by the desert recluse Blaise One day in 2029 she took delivery of 7 000 pages of his arcane diary entries spanning a 20 year period His story what he thinks and writes about is exceedingly odd mystical and perplexing He is anticipating a planetary event to take place in 2033 Soon enough Philomena discovers she impossibly is part of this story in fact will be a keystone in this epochal event Its as if through the journal pages Blaise talks directly to her and pulls her into his world of wisdom angels geomantic patterns and designer planets The pages are encoded with activation triggers Over a three year period she starts to remember her true story her astonishing past Its a nonstop tutorial in the Mysteries Taught by the human Blaise and his angelic mentors also called Blaise seemingly right now in the present moment Except upwards of 35 years or more separate them in the world of linear time Her familiar world starts to fall apart The event is called the Theosophon Blaise writes about it but she designed it Thats startling enough but Philomena is astonished to remember that she designed it eons ago in another galaxy The Earth was created as a performance stage for it The Theosophon is a multidimensional musical event involving the collective consciousness of humanity the Earth and the spiritual world The overture of the fulfillment of the purpose of the Earth and humanity Yes Philomena is an integral part of this unique event but it will cost her more than she ever thought possible
