Un-Dead TV Brad Middleton, 2015-02-05 Vampires are ubiquitous in our popular culture from movies to television in fiction and art and even within the hallowed halls of academia But in the not so distant past these undead creatures held more fear than fascination they lived in the shadows and were the stuff of nightmares In 1897 Bram Stoker introduced Dracula to the Western world and our concept of vampires was changed forever For over sixty years the undead have bled the television airwaves appearing in every type of programming imaginable Un Dead TV catalogues over one thousand unique vampire appearances and is the first book of its kind to explore this phenomenon to the extent that it truly deserves

Price, 2009-09-25 After more than a century of New Testament scholarship it has become clear that the Jesus of the gospels is a fictive amalgam reflecting the hopes and beliefs of the early Christian community and revealing very little about the historical Jesus Over the millennia since the beginning of Christianity various congregations from fundamentalist to liberal have tended to produce a Jesus figurehead that functions as a symbolic cloak for their specific theological agendas Through extensive research and fresh textual insights Robert M Price paves the way for a new reconstruction of Christian origins Moving beyond the work of Burton L Mack and John Dominic Crossan on Jesus movements and Christ cults which shows how the various Jesus figures may have amalgamated into the patchwork savior of Christian faith Price takes an innovative approach He links the work of F C Baur Walter Bauer Helmut Koester and James M Robinson with that of early Christ myth theorists two camps of biblical analysis that have never communicated Arguing that perhaps Jesus never existed as a historical figure Price maintains an agnostic stance while putting many puzzles and scholarly debates in a new light He also incorporates neglected parallels from Islam the Baha i Faith and Buddhism Deconstructing Jesus provides a valuable bridge between New Testament scholarship and early freethinkers in a refreshing cross fertilization of perspectives How to be Well Read John Sutherland, 2014-05-08 Generous enjoyable and well informed Observer 500 expertly potted plots and personal comments on a wide range of pop and proper prose fiction The Times

Ranging all the way from Aaron s Rod to Zuleika Dobson via The Devil Rides Out and Middelmarch literary connoisseur and sleuth John Sutherland offers his very personal guide to the most rewarding most remarkable and on occasion most shamelessly enjoyable works of fiction ever written He brilliantly captures the flavour of each work and assesses its relative merits and demerits He shows how it fits into a broader context and he offers endless snippets of intriguing information did you know for example that the Nazis banned Bambi or that William

Faulkner wrote As I Lay Dying on an upturned wheelbarrow that Voltaire completed Candide in three days or that Anna Sewell was paid 20 for Black Beauty It is also effectively a history of the novel in 500 or so wittily informative bite sized pieces Encyclopaedic and entertaining by turns this is a wonderful dip in book whose opinions will inform and on occasion no doubt infuriate _____ Anyone hooked on fiction should be warned this book will
