Department Of Education Physical Sciences March 2014:

Noncoercive Threats to Academic, Political, and Economic Freedom Akeel Bilgrami, Jonathan R. Cole, 2025-12-02
States and institutions in both conventionally authoritarian and formally democratic societies overtly circumscribe freedom in any number of ways Yet there are also subtler forms by which authorities and cultural forces compromise the choices of individuals in ways that do not seem at first glance to be coercive This book brings together a distinguished set of scholars to examine covert constraints on academic political and economic freedom from a variety of angles developing surprising and timely new insights Ranging across philosophy economics law health science art and the media luminaries from different fields expose threats to freedom within avowedly liberal and democratic institutions and cultures Their incisive essays both analytical and historical emphasize how economic inequality academic orthodoxy media control racism and gender roles undermine the potential for human flourishing By considering such multifarious noncoercive threats they illuminate the vexed notion of freedom Lively and learned this book offers a provocative and urgent understanding of the often unacknowledged forces that restrict our choices Contributors include David Bromwich Eric Foner Robert Gooding Williams Michael Ignatieff Laura Kipnis Anya Schiffrin Joseph E Stiglitz and Geoffrey R Stone In an essay and an interview with the volume editors Noam Chomsky addresses the neoliberal assault on academic freedom

Examining the Phenomenon of "Teaching Out-of-field" Linda Hobbs, Günter Törner, 2019-01-01 This book identifies and surveys the major themes around out of field teaching that is teaching subjects or year levels without a specialization This has been an issue in many countries for some time yet until recently there has been little formal research and poor policy responses to related problems This book arises out of collaborations between members of an international group of researchers and practitioners from Australia Germany Ireland England South Africa Indonesia and the United States Cross national comparisons of ideas through case studies descriptions of practice and research data interrogates the experiences practices and contexts relating to out of field teaching In particular the book considers the phenomenon of out of field teaching in relation to national policy contexts local school leadership practices professional development The book represents an essential contribution on a highly topical issue that has implications for quality and equitable education around the globe
