Design as Politics Tony Fry, 2010-11-01 Design as Politics confronts the inadequacy of contemporary politics to deal with unsustainability Current solutions to unsustainability are analysed as utterly insufficient for dealing with the problems but further than this the book questions the very ability of democracy to deliver a sustainable future Design as Politics argues that finding solutions to this problem of which climate change is only one part demands original and radical thinking Rather than reverting to failed political ideologies the book proposes a post democratic politics In this Design occupies a major role not as it is but as it could be if transformed into a powerful agent of change a force to create and extend freedom The book does no less than position Design as a vital form of political action

Design as Politics Tony Fry, 2010-11-01 Design as Politics confronts the inadequacy of contemporary politics to deal with unsustainability Current solutions to unsustainability are analysed as utterly insufficient for dealing with the problems but further than this the book questions the very ability of democracy to deliver a sustainable future Design as Politics argues that finding solutions to this problem of which climate change is only one part demands original and radical thinking Rather than reverting to failed political ideologies the book proposes a post democratic politics In this Design occupies a major role not as it is but as it could be if transformed into a powerful agent of change a force to create and extend freedom The book does no less than position Design as a vital form of political action

Contrapactice Tony Fry, 2026-05-14 Building on his foundational work on defuturing a deconstructive method that exposes historically the unsustainability of a great deal of design practice and its products Tony Fry now offers a powerful response There is no shortage of analysis of the current state of the world Climate change impacts are increasing environmental destruction will follow populations and settlements will be displaced food security will become critical geopolitical instability and escalating dangers of conflict will grow Such an entangled complexity threatens life itself more seriously than at any time since the Ice Age Against the real threats to life on Earth what are the world's political leaders doing The answers sit between nothing and very little So what is to be done There is no immediate or simple answer But what Contrapactice acknowledges is that nothing changes unless practices change The intent is for the process to take on a life of its own by the many people who care about securing a viable future It does not provide template solutions but the ability to act Every reader is viewed as a communicator of its message and a change agent of their own practice Fry's dialogue in the book with Dulmini Perera is a prompt for the book to be an object of discussion

Defuturing Tony Fry, 2020-08-20 Once one understands the nature and magnitude of defuturing as the negation of world futures how one has to account for the history and making of the material world including design dramatically changes Defuturing as our condition forces the generation of a new philosophy of design With these thoughts this book presents a radically new understanding of the history context and futures of designing First published in 1999 now reissued with a new preface by the author Defuturing A New Design Philosophy is a prescient and powerful account of what it means to comprehend that we live in world that is taking away futures for ourselves and non human others Arguing that designing is doubly implicated in this process first in its roles in helping to create the unsustainable but second re thought through the lens of defuturing as a mode of acting in the world that can help contest the negation of the world Defuturing transforms our comprehension of designing and of how futures can be constituted Working not through abstract theorizing but through the analysis of concrete examples the book uses historical material on design to expose the archaeology of defuturing Shattering the illusion that the future simply is Defuturing confronts designing with the challenge of remaking while offering the elements of a new practical reasoning of design acting

Design and Agency John Potvin, Marie-Ève Marchand, 2020-05-14 Design and Agency brings together leading international design scholars and practitioners to address the concept of agency in relation to objects organisations and people The authors set out to expand the scope of design history and practice avoiding the heroic narratives of a typical modernist approach They consider both how the agents of design construct and express their identities and subjectivities through practice while also investigating the distinctive contribution of design in the construction of individual identity and subjectivity Individual chapters explore notions of agency in a range of design disciplines and historical periods including the agency of women in effecting changes to the design of offices and working practices the role of Jeffrey Lindsay and Buckminster Fuller in developing the design of a geodesic dome Le Corbusier's Casa Curutchet a re consideration of the gendered historiography of the Jugendstil movement and Bruce Mau's design exhibitions Taken together the essays in Design and Agency provide a much needed response to the traditional texts which dominate design history With a broad chronological span from 1900 to the present and an equally broad understanding of the term design it expands how we view the discipline and shows how design itself can be an agent for social cultural and economic change

The Design Politics of the Passport Mahmoud Keshavarz, 2018-12-13 The Design Politics of the Passport presents an innovative study of the passport and its associated social political and material practices as a means of uncovering the workings of design politics It traces the histories technologies power relations and contestations around this small but powerful artefact to establish a framework for understanding how design is always enmeshed in the political and how politics can be understood in terms of material objects Combining design studies with critical border studies alongside ethnographic work among undocumented migrants border transgressors and passport forgers this book shows how a world made and designed as open and hospitable to some is strictly enclosed confined and demarcated for many others and how those affected by such injustices dissent from the immobilities imposed on them through the same capacity of design and artifice

Becoming Human by Design Tony Fry, 2013-07-18 The last in Tony Fry's celebrated trilogy of books continues his radical rethinking of design Becoming Human by Design's provocative argument presents a revised reading of human evolution centred on ontological design Examining the relation of design to the nature of the human species where the species came from how it was created what it became and its likely future Fry asserts that current biological and social models of evolution are an insufficient explanation of how we humans became what we are Making a case for ontological design as an evolutionary agency the book posits the relation between the formation of the world of human fabrication and the making of mankind itself as indivisible It also functions as a provocation to rethink the fate of Homo sapiens recognising that all species are finite and that the fate of humankind turns on a fundamental Darwinian principle adapt or die Fry considers the nature of adaptation arguing that it will depend on an ability to think and design in new ways Writing Design Fiction Tony Fry,2021-10-21 Written by leading design philosopher Tony Fry Writing Design Fiction Relocating a City in Crisis is both an introduction to the power of design fiction in the design process and a novella length work of fiction in itself telling the dramatic story of the relocation of the City of Harshon Set in the near future Harshon a delta city is facing environmental catastrophe due to rising sea levels consequently a decision is made to relocate the entire city inland A diverse cast of voices including an architect a journalist an economist a construction worker and residents narrate the extraordinary challenges and complexities which follow This work presents a real world scenario which in coming decades will face many of the world's cities The fictional format provides a novel way of exploring the very serious inherent technical social political economic and cultural challenges The story provides a rehearsal of the design challenges which are likely to face architects planners and designers in an uncertain global future Design fiction is a fast growing area within design and architecture increasingly deployed as a serious methodology by designers as a tool in scenario planning Writing Design Fiction takes the practice to a higher level conceptually and theoretically but also practically The book is divided into four parts with the fictional narrative bookended by further critical analysis Part One shows how a critique of existing modes of design fiction can lead to more grounded and critical thinking and practice Part Three critically reflects on the narrative while Part Four presents the practical application of the second order design fiction approach This book demonstrates the value of a more developed mode of design fiction to students professional designers and architects across the breadth of design practices as well as to other disciplines interested in the future of cities Design Beyond the Human Elio Caccavale,Gordon Hush,2025-12-11 A collection of transdisciplinary essays by scholars and designers which explore humanity's relationship with the planet its ecosystems and inhabitants now and in the future Critical by Design? Claudia Mareis,Moritz Greiner-Petter,Michael Renner,2022-02-03 In its constructive and speculative nature design has the critical potential to reshape prevalent socio material realities At the same time design is inevitably normative if not often violent as it stabilises the past normalises the present and precludes just and sustainable futures The contributions rethink concepts of critique that influence the field of design question inherent blind spots of the discipline and expand understandings of what critical design practices could be With contributions from design theory practice and education art theory philosophy and informatics Critical by Design aims to question and unpack the ambivalent tensions between design and critique Design Futuring Tony Fry,2008 Design Issues ,2019 The first American academic journal to examine design history theory and criticism Design Issues provokes inquiry into the cultural and intellectual issues surrounding design Regular features include theoretical and critical articles by professional and scholarly contributors extensive book reviews illustrations and a section for reader response Special issues concentrate on particular themes such as artificial intelligence product seminars design in Asia and design education

Block ,1985     Art Libraries Journal ,1984     Steel Tony Fry,Anne-Marie Willis,2015-02-26 Steel has over centuries played a crucial role in shaping our material and in particular urban landscapes This books undertakes a cultural and ecological history of the material examining the relationship between steel and design at a micro and macro level in terms of both what it has been used to design and how it has functioned as a world making force The research for the book is informed by diverse sources including industry journals contemporary accounts and technical literature all framed by rich early accounts of iron and steel making from the middle ages to the opening of the industrial age and most notably the crucial works of Vannoccio Biringuccio Georgius Agricola Andrew Ure and Harry Scrivenor In contrast trans cultural accounts of the history of metallurgy from eminent sinologists and cultural historians like Joseph Needham and G E R Lloyd are used Readings on the pre history and history of science as well as histories and philosophies technology from scholars such as Siegfried Giedion Merritt Roe Smith L T C Rolt Robert B Gordon inform the analysis Social and economic history from historians such as Eric Hobsbawn William T Hogan and David Brody are consulted labour process theory is also examined particularly the influential writings of F W Taylor in the late 19th and early 20th centuries and his contemporary critics like David Nobel and Harry Braverman Many other disciples also inform the account histories of urban design and architecture transport and military history environmental history and geography     Artbibliographies Modern ,1998

A New Political Imagination Tony Fry,Madina Tlostanova,2020-11-12 The book presents the case for the making of a new political imagination by offering a critique of existing political institutions philosophy and practices that are unable to provide the thinking means and leadership to deal with the complexity and crises of specific locales and the world at large The authors make clear that there is a fundamental disjuncture between the complexity of the combined critical conditions that are now putting life on Earth at risk and the divisions and theories of knowledge that are dominantly and instrumentally trying to understand the situation In response this work makes the case for the need for a new political imagination that rejects the sufficiency of existing political ideologies including democracy being the end point of politics The book tackles the political underpinnings of social and economic life in a world still embedded in the inequities of the afterlife of colonialism and state socialism Thereafter it engages narratives of change rethinks imagination and critical practices to finally present a relationally connected way to move forward This trans disciplinary volume is directed at those working in political philosophy and epistemology critical global and security studies decoloniality and postcolonial studies design critical anthropology and the post humanities It is accessible to both academic audiences and activists and practitioners     Design ,1993     Design World ,1989     Design in Australia, 1880-1970 Michael Bogle,1998 This investigation of design explores the experience of poets painters critics museum curators and journalists to illustrate the vitality of the discipline
