

BABY SHOWER POEM

This poem goes quick and is simple to play,
just listen to the poem and do what I say.
Points you will win and points you will lose,
get the most points and a prize you can choose
So each of you, I've given a paper and pen,
that's all you need, now let's begin.
Babies are sweet but diapers are not,
give yourself 3 points if a diaper you brought.
If Huggies are the brand, give yourself 5,
and take away 4 if they are on something alive.
Add another 2 points if you like baby shower games,
then take away 3 if you don't know everyone's names.
Babies grow fast and change quickly you know,
give yourself 10 if you are preggo.
5 points are yours if you bought a baby book,
add 3 more points if breakfast you did cook.
Take away 4 if that breakfast had eggs,
and another 3 if you didn't shave your legs.
If you have a child born in the month of May,
give yourself 3 then shout hooray!
Another 10 points you should add to your score, if you're the person who is closest to the door.
If you're standing up, take away 3,
add 5 if you're related to the mother-to-be.
Give yourself 2 if your pen is black or blue,
if it's another color, instead subtract 2.
Keep listening closely, the game is almost done,
give yourself 3 if you think this is fun!
5 points are yours if a mother you are not,
and take away 3 if clothes is the gift you bought.
This is your final chance to build up your score,
add 6 points if children you have four or more.
Take away 10 if those 4 are all girls or all boys,
and give yourself 3 if your gift included toys.
The game is now over, wasn't that fun,
now tell me your points so we can see who won!
