Busnel Société des Bibliophiles Bretons et de l'Histoire de Bretagne (NANTES),Adrien OUDIN,1891 Soil and Stone Frances Fowle,2017-07-05 The Impressionists are world renowned for their vibrant depictions of the atmospheric effects and shimmering beauty of the French countryside These paintings often produced in Paris found an enthusiastic market in the city The inhabitants of that hub of modernity had an apparently paradoxical interest in the mythologies of rural living As the city became more and more the motive force of social change so the country was understood as the anchor of changelessness and nostalgia The essayists in this volume examine the complex relationship between country and city Their work draws widely on the contemporary culture exploring folklore and children s literature anarchism and urbanism and offers significant new insights into the work of major artists and writers including Courbet Millet Monet Van Gogh and Zola Der Hodscha Nasreddin Albert Wesselski,2018-04-05 Reproduction of the original Der Hodscha Nasreddin by Albert Wesselski The Conte Janice Carruthers,Maeve McCusker,2010 A majority of the chapters in this book were originally presented as papers at a conference held at Queen's University Belfast in September 2006. The volume explores the oral-written dynamic in the conte fran-ais francophone focusing on key aspects of the relationship between oral and written forms of the conte. The chapters fall into four broad thematic areas: the oral-written dynamic in early modern France; literary appropriations and transformations; postcolonial contexts; storytelling in contemporary France; linguistic strategies. Within these broad areas, some chapters deal with sources and influences such as that of written on oral and vice versa; others with the nature of the discourse resulting from an oral-written dynamic; discourse structure; linguistic features etc. some with the oral-written interface as it affects the definition of genre; others with the role of the oral within the literary or written text; use of storytelling scenarios; the problematics inherent in transcribing/adapting the spoken word etc. This chronological and methodological range allows us to situate the emergence of the form in socio-cultural and historical terms and to open up debate around the role of the conte in particular geographical and political contexts: regional, national, European and postcolonial. This book contains contributions in both English and French.

Concentrating on the militarised borderlands of eastern France, this book examines the disjuncture between the patriotic expectations of elites and the sentiments expressed in folksongs, folktales and popular imagery in which issues of sexuality, violence and separation took far greater prominence. Hopkin follows the soldier through his life cycle from greenhorn recruit to grizzled veteran to show how the peasant conscript was separated from his previous life and re-educated in military mores and the response that this transformation elicited from his family and community.
