SUBJECT : BJMP FORUM AND CAREER ORIENTATION

On August 18, 2023, the grounds of Arellano University's Juan Sumulong Campus were abuzz with excitement as the College of Criminal Justice Education and the Criminology Student Organization jointly hosted the highly anticipated BJMP Forum and Career Orientation. The Little Theatre served as the epicenter of this event, attracting criminology students from various universities across the Philippines, all of them dressed in their finest attire. The occasion promised a day brimming with enlightening insights and promising career prospects within the Bureau of Jail Management and Penology.

Throughout the day, attendees were treated to engaging presentations delivered by seasoned BJMP experts, who meticulously delved into the organization's structure and functions. These sessions emphasized the BJMP's indispensable role in inmate rehabilitation, underscoring the significance of its mission within the criminal justice system. Interactive sessions offered students a unique opportunity to interact directly with BJMP officers, enabling them to ask questions and receive valuable advice from seasoned professionals.

A bustling career fair rounded out the event, where students eagerly explored potential job openings, internship programs, and scholarship opportunities within the BJMP. The fair ignited their dreams of becoming future correctional officers and further fueled their aspirations to contribute meaningfully to the fields of justice and rehabilitation. As the day drew to a close, the students left the BJMP Forum and Career Orientation with a renewed sense of purpose, inspired to embark on a journey towards a rewarding career dedicated to upholding the principles of justice and fostering rehabilitation in the Philippines.
