Criminology Rick Linden, 2019 Criminology Rick Linden, 2003 VitalSource EBook Rick Linden, 2012-03-22

Everybody Does It! Thomas Gabor, 1994-01-01 Gabor's analysis probes the whys and wherefores of crime and reveals why some people are labeled and processed as criminals while others are not Case studies raise crucial questions about law enforcement Trauma-Informed Youth Justice Judah Oudshoorn, 2015-12-01 Most youth who come in conflict with the law have experienced some form of trauma yet many justice professionals are ill equipped to deal with the effects trauma has on youth and instead reinforce a system that further traumatizes young offenders while ignoring the needs of victims By taking a trauma informed perspective this text provides a much needed alternative one that allows for interventions based on principles of healing and restorative justice rather than on punishment and risk assessment In addition to providing a comprehensive historical overview of youth justice in Canada Judah Oudshoorn addresses the context of youth offending by examining both individual trauma including its emotional cognitive and behavioural effects and collective trauma The author tackles some of the most difficult problems facing youth justice today especially the ongoing cycles of intergenerational trauma caused by the colonization of Indigenous peoples and patriarchal violence and demonstrates how a trauma informed approach to youth justice can work toward preventing crime and healing offenders victims and communities Featuring a foreword written by Howard Zehr case stories from the author's own work with victims and offenders questions for reflection and annotated lists of recommended readings this engaging text is the perfect resource for college and university students in the field of youth justice Canadian Criminology James C. Hackler, 2003 Appropriate for introductory criminology and criminology theory course taught at universities and colleges across Canada Canadian Criminology Strategies and Perspectives takes a critical ideological approach to the study of criminology The major strengths of this text are its breadth of Canadian content and its inclusion of cross cultural comparisons The text incorporates both empirical and radical approaches to understanding and reducing crime The third edition of Canadian Criminology Strategies and Perspectives incorporates numerous changes including updated statistics a more in depth coverage of gender and radical criminology as well as more material on restorative justice The new edition has been restructured now including 18 chapters and new pedagogical features within each chapter Power and Resistance Wayne Antony, Jessica Antony, Les Samuelson, 2020-05-06T00:00:00Z How do we make sense of the social problems that continue to plague Canadian society Our understanding of issues such as poverty racism violence homophobia crime and pollution stems from our view of how society is structured From the dominant neoliberal perspective social problems arise from individuals making poor choices From a critical perspective however these social troubles are caused by structural social inequalities Disparities in economic social and political power that is relations of power based on class race gender and sexual orientation are the central structural element of capitalist patriarchal colonialist societies The contributors to Power and Resistance use this critical perspective to explore Canadian social issues such as poverty colonialism homophobia violence against women climate change and so on This sixth edition adds chapters on the corporatization of higher education the lethal impacts of colonialism democracy the social determinants of health drug policy and sexual violence on campus Canadian Journal of Criminology, 1998 Sociology in Our Times Diana Elizabeth Kendall, Rick Linden, Jane Lothian Murray, 2016-03-03 Sociology in Our Times is a popular introductory sociology text used at both colleges and universities Sociology in Our Times systematically frames each chapter in the text with each of the five main theoretical perspectives functionalist conflict feminist symbolic interactionist and postmodernist Youth, Crime, and Justice Clayton A Hartjen, 2008-03-25 Close to half of the world's population is below the age of criminal jurisdiction in most countries Many of these young people are living in poverty and under totalitarian regimes Given their deprived and often abject circumstances it is not surprising that many of them become involved in crime In Youth Crime and Justice Clayton A Hartjen provides a broad overview of juvenile delinquency how it manifests itself around the world and how societies respond to misconduct among their children Taking a global rather than country specific approach chapters focus on topics that range from juvenile laws and the correction of child offenders to the abuse exploitation and victimization of young people Hartjen includes specific examples from the United States Australia Spain Switzerland New Zealand Japan India Egypt and elsewhere as he sorts through the various definitions of delinquent and explores the differences in behavior that contribute to these classifications Most importantly his in depth and comparative look at judicial systems worldwide raises questions about how young offenders should be corrected and how much fault can be laid on misbehaving youths acting out against the very societies that produced them Comparative Delinquency Clayton A.
