INTRODUCTION

The prevalence of crimes and criminals is universal and its existence is as old as the world existed. And from its existence up to present times, studies on modern techniques in crime prevention, correctional methods and advanced studies in crime etiology had been pursued by many scholars and advocates of criminology. Yet, until today, nothing clear and concrete had been formulated for its total remedy, - the reason why, much have been searched and re-searched to discover effective methods in combating criminalities, identifying factors that lead to the cause of crimes and identifying behavior of would-be offender.

Criminology is a science which deals with the study of crime, the study of forms of criminal behavior, the causes of crime, the definition of criminality, and the societal reaction towards criminal activity, it must be understood that the study of criminology is closer to the study of psychology than criminal justice because it studies the mind and behaviors of criminals as opposed to their criminal conduct.

CRIMINOLOGY defined.

Criminology is a body of knowledge regarding crime as a social phenomenon. It includes within its scope, the making of laws, the breaking of laws, and the reactions towards the breaking of laws.

Based on the premise, criminology can also be defined as the scientific study of causes of crime in relation to man and society who set and define rules and regulations for himself and others to govern.

Criminology was derived from the LATIN WORD CRIMEN which means "accusation" and the GREEK WORD ΛΟΓΙΑ-LOGIA which means "the science approach to the study of crime as an individual and social phenomenon."
