Making Miss India Miss World Susan Dewey, 2008-04-07 For almost half a century the Miss India competition has been a prominent feature of Indian popular culture influencing over time the conventional standard for female beauty As India participates increasingly in a global economy that standard is gradually being shaped by forces beyond the country's borders Through the unexpected lens of the 2003 beauty pageant Susan Dewey's Making Miss India Miss World examines what feminine beauty has come to mean in a country transformed by recent political economic and cultural developments

Facial Attractiveness Leslie

Zebrowitz,2001-10-30 Using evolutionary cognitive and social psychology this volume examines the issues raised by the question What makes some faces more attractive than others The authors challenge the views that beauty is simply in the eye of the beholder that it is idiosyncratic and that it is nothing more than an artifact of culture They argue instead that there are a variety of biological social motivational and developmental issues involved in facial attractiveness By exploring attractiveness and preference from these various perspectives this collection offers profound and unique insight on how and why we are attracted to certain facial types and how that attraction can influence our social interaction Some of the ideas presented in Facial Attractiveness are surprising others controversial and others even paradoxical Combined however they offer a new perspective on age old questions of attraction beauty and preference Each author challenges standard assumptions about beauty and encourages the reader to explore new trends in evolutionary social and cognitive psychology in search of a more coherent answer to the questions of what makes a face attractive and why
