Critical Debates on Counter-Terrorism Judicial Review Fergal F. Davis, Fiona de Londras, 2014-10-02 An examination of the debates regarding whether judicial review is an effective and appropriate way to regulate counter terrorism measures

Great Debates on the European Convention on Human Rights Fiona de Londras, Kanstantsin

Dzehtsiarou, 2025-12-18 The 2nd edition of Great Debates on the European Convention on Human Rights encourages deep and critical engagement with the Convention the Court and the European system for human rights protection The European Convention on Human Rights ECHR is widely hailed as the most successful regional human rights instrument The decisions of its European Court of Human Rights ECtHR are cited all around the world and every year tens of thousands of people turn to the Court for relief and aid when they consider their human rights have been violated In each of the 46 countries contracted to the Convention the ECHR has an everyday impact shaping law and public policy and being argued in domestic courts Law schools in the UK and Europe generally focus on the case law of the Convention and approach it on an article by article basis This grounding in the Convention the jurisprudence of the Court and the emerging contestations around whether the Convention properly protects the rights of marginalised and vulnerable groups is a vital foundation for understanding the Convention However the law relating to the ECHR is voluminous and many courses are only able to concentrate on some of the most well known case law and some topics of particular contention such as LGBTQIA rights states of emergency and freedom of the press Great Debates on the European Convention on Human Rights builds upon the nuts and bolts grounding in the Convention and workings of the Court It offers a unique thematic approach to thinking and learning about the Convention Each of the key debates is illuminated by taking a wide lens on the ECHR some points of contention are illustrated by reaching across Articles others by examining national and international arenas and still others by exploring the ECHR's organisational structure and working practices

Access to Domestic Justice for Violations of International Law Leander Beinlich, 2025-08-11 How does international law entitle individuals to challenge violations of international law before domestic courts Developing the novel concept of access rights Leander Beinlich takes a thorough look at the domestic adjudication of international law and external state action through the lens of individual rights

The Collaborative Constitution Aileen Kavanagh, 2023-10-26 In this book Aileen Kavanagh offers a fresh account of how we should protect rights in a democracy Departing from leading theoretical accounts which present the courts and legislature as rivals for constitutional supremacy Kavanagh argues that protecting rights is a collaborative enterprise between all three branches of government the Executive the legislature and the courts On a collaborative vision of constitutionalism protecting rights is neither the solitary task of a Herculean super judge nor the dignified pronouncements of an enlightened legislature Instead it is a complex dynamic and collaborative endeavour where each branch has a distinct but complementary role to play whilst engaging with each other in a spirit of comity and mutual respect Connecting constitutional theory with the practice of protecting rights in a democracy this book offers an innovative understanding of the separation of powers grounded in the values and virtues of constitutional collaboration Parliamentary Debates, Senate, Official Hansard Australia.
