Critical Thinking Barriers hinder us from thinking with reason and logic. In the space provided, identify what kind of barrier the example presents relate to Critical Thinking.

The only way to look at things is the way I do, and if someone does not view things the way I do, I am absolutely baffled, irritated, and upset.

If everyone is in agreement, then my opposite beliefs must be invalid.

I'd rather daydream than pay attention to our lecture.

My mother told me that I should get married by the age of 25 or else I'll never get married at all.

Anglo-sounding last names were found to be more common than Asian last names in a recent study, which showed that the former received more calls when hiring people.

Due to the short time allotted by the professor to complete the exam, I was unable to think clearly about my answers.

Since I've consistently received honors since first grade, I don't believe anything anyone says.
