The Magic of Concepts Rebecca E. Karl, 2017-03-02 In The Magic of Concepts Rebecca E. Karl interrogates the economic as concept and practice as it was construed historically in China in the 1930s and again in the 1980s and 1990s Separated by the Chinese Revolution and Mao's socialist experiments each era witnessed urgent discussions about how to think about economic concepts derived from capitalism in modern China Both eras were highly cosmopolitan and each faced its own global crisis in economic and historical philosophy In the 1930s capitalism's failures suggested that socialism offered a plausible solution while the abandonment of socialism five decades later provoked a rethinking of the relationship between history and the economic as social practice Interweaving a critical historiography of modern China with the work of the Marxist trained economist Wang Yanan Karl shows how magical concepts based on dehistoricized Eurocentric and capitalist conceptions of historical activity that purport to exist outside lived experiences have erased much of the critical import of China's twentieth century history In this volume Karl retrieves the economic to argue for a more nuanced and critical account of twentieth century Chinese and global historical practice
