Test Collection,1993 The major source of information on the availability of standardized tests Wilson Library BulletinCovers commercially available standardized tests and hard to locate research instruments The Trials of Evidence-based Education Stephen Gorard,Beng Huat See,Nadia Siddiqui,2017-06-26 The Trials of Evidence based Education explores the promise limitations and achievements of evidence based policy and practice as the attention of funders moves from a sole focus on attainment outcomes to political concern about character building and wider educational impacts Providing a detailed look at the pros cons and areas for improvement in evidence based policy and practice this book includes consideration of the following What is involved in a robust evaluation for education The issues in conducting trials and how to assess the trustworthiness of research findings New methods for the design conduct analysis and use of evidence from trials and examining their implications What policy makers head teachers and practitioners can learn from the evidence to inform practice In this well structured and thoughtful text the results and implications of over 20 studies conducted by the authors are combined with a much larger number of studies from their systematic reviews and the implications are spelled out for the research community policy makers schools wanting to run their own evaluations and for practitioners using evidence Resources in Education ,2000-04 Executive Function and Education Mariëtte Huizinga,Dieter Baeyens,Jacob A. Burack,2018-09-21 Executive function is an umbrella term for various cognitive processes that are central to goal directed behavior thoughts and emotions These processes are especially important in novel or demanding situations which require a rapid and flexible adjustment of behavior to the changing demands of the environment The development of executive function relies on the maturation of associated brain regions as well as on stimulation in the child s social contexts especially the home and school Over the past decade the term executive function has become a buzzword in the field of education as both researchers and educators underscore the importance of skills like goal setting planning and organizing in academic success Accordingly in initiating this Research Topic and eBook our goal was to provide a forum for state of the art theoretical and empirical work on this that both facilitates communication among researchers from diverse fields and provides a theoretically sound source of information for educators The contributors to this volume who hail from several different countries in Europe and North America have certainly accomplished this goal in their nuanced and cutting edge depictions of the complex links among various executive function components and educational success The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy,Robert Cameron,Ursula Hoadley,Vinothan Naidoo,2018-09-05 This is an open access title available under the terms of a

CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning
