Mary O'Connor is lost in a series of dead end jobs with no idea what she wants to do when she grows up While her friends are getting on with their lives she is only going through the motions of hers She wonders if her dreams may offer some insight into her future After her most recent nightmare she decides that its time to move on She will go back to college a decision her best friend Susan believes will change Mary's life for the better. But they have no idea how much Mary going back to finish college is about to turn their lives upside down. As her new college career unfolds, she learns of the reason St. Anthony's College recruited her: she has psychic abilities and hidden powers. Little does she know that lives now depend upon these abilities along with her choices. And the fate of a betrayer lies in her hands. Labeled a quitter at a young age, Mary must face her inner demons along with the outer ones who are closing in on her. An evil plague is spreading. It is almost too much for her to handle. Will her touch of faith be enough to save the man she loves, or is his tortured soul primed for the taking?

The Stories of Frederick Busch Frederick Busch, 2014. A selection of short stories from a twentieth-century American master. Dan Cryer, Newsday. A contemporary of Ann Beattie and Tobias Wolff, Frederick Busch was a master craftsman of the form; his subjects were single event moments in so-called ordinary life. The stories in this volume, selected by Pulitzer Prize winner Elizabeth Strout, are tales of families trying to heal their wounds, save their marriages, and rescue their children. In Ralph the Duck, a security guard struggles to hang on to his marriage. In Name the Name, a traveling teacher attends to students outside the school, including his own son locked in a country jail. In Busch's work, we are reminded that we have no idea what goes on behind closed doors or in the mind of another. In the words of Raymond Carver: "With astonishing felicity of detail, Busch presents us with a world where real things are at stake and sometimes, as in the real world, everything is risked." From his first volume, Hardwater Country (1974), to his most recent, Rescue Missions (2006), this volume selects thirty stories from an American master. Dan Cryer, Newsday, showcasing a body of work that is sure to shape American fiction for generations to come.

Don't Tell Anyone Frederick Busch, 2000. A collection of short stories explores the connections among people and asks why some succeed and others do not. Lori Dee Marconi, In the nineteen seventies, America becomes a place Lori doesn't recognize. A revolution begins, and people rebel against authority. They're anti-war, instead choosing peace, love, and sexual freedom. The need to fit in and go along with society's rules is replaced with the desire to be an individual marching to a unique tune. Lori is twenty-seven, a married mother of two, when she and her husband decide to separate in this haze of free love. Brad wants his wife to submit to the old-fashioned ideology, while he wants to experiment with society's new direction. He lies and cheats, expecting her to remain a faithful, obedient wife, submitting to his demands. Imagine his surprise when Lori embraces rebellion and leaves Brad behind, but nothing is that easy. In a small town filled with small-minded people, gossip runs rampant as Lori travels her own brave path. She is determined to keep her children, no matter how difficult it's going to be. Lori's world is changing, and she is ready to be an empowered modern woman.
