Creating Kosovo International Oversight And The Making Of Ethical Institutions:

Creating Kosovo Elton Skendaj, 2014-12-18 In shaping the institutions of a new country what interventions from international actors lead to success and failure Elton Skendaj's investigation into Kosovo based on national survey data interviews and focus groups conducted over ten months of fieldwork leads to some surprising answers Creating Kosovo highlights efforts to build the police force the central government courts and a customs service Skendaj finds that central administration and the courts which had been developed under local authority succumbed to cronyism and corruption challenging the premise that local ownership leads to more effective state bureaucracies The police force and customs service directly managed by international actors were held to a meritocratic standard fulfilling their missions and winning public respect On the other hand local participation and contestation supported democratic institutions When international actors supported the demobilization of popular movements they undermined the ability of the public to hold elected officials accountable

Professional Journal of the United States Army, 2016-03 Military Review, 2016 Institution Building in Weak States Andrew Radin, 2020-07-01 The effort to improve state institutions in post conflict societies is a complicated business Even when foreign intervention is carried out with the best of intentions and the greatest resources it often fails What can account for this failure In Institution Building in Weak States Andrew Radin argues that the international community's approach to building state institutions needs its own reform This innovative book proposes a new strategy rooted in a rigorous analysis of recent missions In contrast to the common strategy of foreign interveners imposing models drawn from Western countries Radin shows how pursuing incremental change that accommodates local political interests is more likely to produce effective accountable and law abiding institutions Drawing on extensive field research and original interviews Radin examines efforts to reform the central government military and police in post conflict Bosnia and Herzegovina Kosovo Iraq and Timor Leste Based on his own experience in defense reform in Ukraine after 2014 Radin also draws parallels with efforts to improve state institutions outside of post conflict societies Institution Building in Weak States introduces a domestic opposition theory that better explains why institution building fails and what is required to make it work With actionable recommendations for smarter policy the book offers an important corrective for scholars and practitioners of post conflict missions international development peacebuilding and security cooperation

Peace, Preference, and Property Sandra F Joireman, 2022-11-29 A bottom up analysis of what displaced people need rather than what states want The Kosovo Report Independent International Commission on Kosovo, 2000-10-19 The war in Kosovo was a turning point NATO deployed its armed forces in war for the first time and placed the controversial doctrine of humanitarian intervention squarely in the world's eye It was an armed intervention for the purpose of implementing Security Council resolutions but without Security Council authorization This report tries to answer a number of burning questions such as why the international community was unable to act earlier and prevent the escalation of the conflict as well as

focusing on the capacity of the United Nations to act as global peacekeeper The Commission recommends a new status for Kosovo conditional independence with the goal of lasting peace and security for Kosovo and for the Balkan region in general But many of the conclusions may be beneficially applied to conflicts the world over The Law and Politics of the Kosovo Advisory Opinion Marko Milanovic, Michael Charles Wood, 2015 This volume is an edited collection of essays on various aspects of the 2010 Kosovo Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice The main theme of the book is the interplay between law and politics regarding Kosovo's independence generally and the advisory opinion specifically How and why did the Court become the battleground in which Kosovo's independence was to be fought out or not How and why did political arguments in favour of Kosovo's independence e.g. that Kosovo was a unique sui generis case which set no precedent for other secessionist territories change in the formal legal setting of advisory proceedings before the Court How and why did states supporting either Kosovo or Serbia choose to frame their arguments How did the Court perceive them What did the Court want to achieve and did it succeed in doing so And how was the opinion received and what broader implications did it have so far These are the questions that the book hopes to shed some light on To do so the editors assembled a stellar cast of contributors many of whom acted as counsel or advisors in the case as well a number of eminent scholars of politics and international relations whose pieces further enrich the book and give it an interdisciplinary angle The book thus tells the story of the case places it within its broader political context and so attempts to advance our understanding of how such cases are initiated litigated and decided and what broader purposes they may or may not serve Acting Like a State Gözim Visoka, 2018-06-13 How do emerging states obtain international recognition and secure membership of international organisations in contemporary world politics This book provides the first in depth study of Kosovo's diplomatic approach to becoming a sovereign state by obtaining international recognition and securing membership of international organisations Analysing the everyday diplomatic discourses performances and entanglements this book contends that state becoming is not wholly determined by systemic factors normative institutions or the preferences of great powers the diplomatic agency of the fledgling state plays a far more important role than is generally acknowledged Drawing on institutional ethnographic research and first hand observations this book argues that Kosovo's diplomatic success in consolidating its sovereign statehood has been the situational assemblage of multiple discourses practiced through a broad variety of performative actions and shaped by a complex entanglement with global assemblages of norms actors relations and events Accordingly this book contributes to expanding our understanding of the everyday diplomatic agency of emerging states and the changing norms politics and practices regarding the diplomatic recognition of states and their admission to international society
