Trainer's Guide to the Creative Curriculum for Family Child Care Diane Trister Dodge, Laura Jean Colker, 1991 This trainer's guide presents two approaches to working with providers who are implementing The Creative Curriculum for Family Child Care. The first approach involves periodic workshops and sharing sessions for providers. The second approach involves individualized support offered by the trainer in each provider's home. In Chapter I Planning Effective Training Sessions a review of knowledge about adult learners provides a basis for planning training. The chapter offers practical suggestions on logistics training techniques communication with providers and assessment of training. Chapter II Workshops on the Creative Curriculum includes detailed workshop outlines for each major activity area in the curriculum. Chapters III and IV focus on the process of working with providers in their homes giving particular attention to preparation of the environment and implementation of activities. These chapters explain what should happen in family child care homes where the creative curriculum is used and indicate the importance of these happenings. These chapters also deal with typical problems that providers experience and strategies for helping providers address such problems. An appendix lists resources that supplement the curriculum and professional organizations providers can join. RH

Literacy, a Family Affair ... Parents, Infants, Toddlers A. June Atkins, 1992 This handbook is a tool that will assist you in the development of your own family literacy projects or to add a parent child literacy component to existing programs. It is written for those of you who do not have an early childhood consultant to lead you by the hand through the morass of red tape involved in simultaneously initiating a child care and parent literacy instructional program. This document is intended to alert you to the variety of details which must be considered before your concept can become a reality. Hopefully this information will trigger ideas and enable you to personalize and customize your program for the improvement of communication and parenting skills for the parents and the literacy levels for both parents and their children. page 5

Early Intervention Services for Infants, Toddlers, and Their Families Patricia Mulhearn Blasco, 2001 B This book combines a firm theoretical philosophical orientation to both normal and atypical development of infants and toddlers with practical ideas for teaching and working with families. This book provides the link between research and practice to guide readers in understanding key principles of early development in infants and toddlers with disabilities. Early Intervention Services for Infants Toddlers and Their Families emphasizes that service providers need to have a firm foundation in typical child development before being able to fully understand and develop programs for children with unique needs. This book also promotes the acknowledgement of family members as partners in all aspects of service delivery and supports the role of service providers as advocates for both children and their families. Anyone with an interest in Early Intervention special education or early childhood education
