Criteria For Judging Beauty Pageant

Liz Locke, Theresa A. Vaughan, Pauline Greenhill

Criteria For Judging Beauty Pageant:

Crowning the Nice Girl Christine R. Yano, 2006-06-30 After World War II Japanese Americans in Hawaii sought to carve a positive niche of public citizenship in the community. In 1953 members of the Honolulu Japanese Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives created a beauty contest the Cherry Blossom Festival CBF Queen Pageant which quickly became an annual spectacle for the growing urban population of Honolulu. Crowning the Nice Girl analyzes the pageant through its decades of development to the present within multiple frameworks of gender class and race ethnicity. Drawing on extensive archival research interviews with CBF queens contestants and organizers and participant observation in the Fiftieth Annual Festival as a volunteer Christine Yano paints a complex portrait of not only a beauty pageant but also a community. The study begins with the subject of beauty pageants in general and Asian American beauty pageants in particular interrogating the issues they raise embedding them within their histories and examining them as part of a global culture that has taken its model from the Miss America contest. Yano follows the pageant throughout the decades into the 1990s adding corresponding herstories extensive narratives drawn from interviews with CBF queens. She concludes by framing issues of race ethnicity spectacle and community within the intertwined themes of niceness and banality.

Native American Princess Pageants Sebahattin Ziyank, Steven Aicinena, 2024-10-15 This book delivers a systematic investigation of Native American princess pageants exploring when and why they started how they spread across and within Native American communities the ways in which these pageants differ from other contests such as Miss USA the workings of the pageants themselves and their socio cultural costs and benefits.

Queen of the Maple Leaf Patrizia Gentile, 2020-11-01 As modern versions of the settler nation took root in twentieth century Canada beauty emerged as a business. But beauty pageants were more than just frivolous spectacles. Queen of the Maple Leaf deftly uncovers how colonial power operated within the pageant circuit. Patrizia Gentile examines the interplay between local or community based pageants and provincial or national ones. Contests such as Miss War Worker and Miss Civil Service often functioned as stepping stones to larger competitions. At all levels pageants exemplified codes of femininity class sexuality and race that shaped the narratives of the settler nation. A union organized pageant such as Queen of the Dressmakers for example might uplift working class women but immigrant women need not apply. Queen of the Maple Leaf demonstrates how these contests connected female bodies to respectable wholesome middle class femininity locating their longevity squarely within their capacity to reassert the white heteropatriarchy at the heart of settler societies.
