Civic Education in the Elementary Grades Dana Mitra, Stephanie C. Serriere, 2015 As former elementary school teachers the authors focus on what is possible in schools rather than a romantic vision of what schools could be Based on a 5 year study of an elementary school this book shows how civic engagement can be purposive and critical a way to encourage young people to examine their environment to notice and question injustices and to take action to make a difference in their communities and school Focusing on the intersection of student voice and critical inquiry the book describes how to embed civic engagement into curriculum school decision making processes and whole school activities Chapters provide an overview of what research has demonstrated about civic engagement at the classroom school and community levels including detailed descriptions of activities and lessons for practice Classroom teachers school principals community members and teacher educators can use this resource to foster a deeper richer understanding of what is entailed in civic life Book Features A vivid portrait of a typical public school that wants to do more than teach to the test An examination of the conditions that enable young people to participate in democratic practices including identifying and questioning injustices Concrete examples of student voice and critical inquiry in classroom contexts Practices and activities that encourage children to get along with others exchange perspectives and work across differences Offers a suggestive range of evidence that high quality civic engagement initiatives can enhance students academic social and emotional engagement It reveals the nitty gritty of how experienced teachers can enable children who are immersed in meaningful civic work also to engage more deeply with mathematical problem solving peer collaboration literacy and social studies learning and development of empathy and mutual trust From the Foreword by Meira Levinson Mitra and Serriere show us not only that elementary aged children are capable of civic engagement but how such engagement can be nurtured in the classroom Children can be active civic participants this book demonstrates both the power of this idea and how we might accomplish this essential task Beth C Rubin Rutgers University Education for Civic Engagement in Democracy ERIC Clearinghouse for Social Studies/Social Science Education, Bloomington, IN.,2000 This collection of essays and references addresses the problem of the disengagement in public affairs and politics by U S youth and young adults The collection brings together evidence of youth disengagement and reports on promising practices for civic education Several chapters are devoted to research findings on the impact of service and service learning and to programs that connect service to politics and public life Other chapters explore methods to counter cynicism and lack of information or misinformation about political processes and public officials Essays in the collection are 1 Introduction to Education for Civic Engagement in Democracy John J Patrick 2 Political Apathy and Avoidance of News Media among Generations X and Y America s Continuing Problem Stephen Earl Bennett 3 Service Learning and Civic Education Richard M Battistoni 4 Service Learning and Civic Education in the Schools What Does Recent Research Tell Us Mary A Hepburn 5 Civic Education as a Craft Not a Program Harry C Boyte 6 Effects of Public Deliberation on High School Students Bridging the Disconnection between Young People and Public Life Iara Peng 7 Education for Citizenship Promising Effects of the Kids Voting USA Curriculum Steven Chaffee 8 We the People Project Citizen Herbert M Atherton 9 Improving Civic Education The Dirksen Congressional Center Frank H Mackaman Andrea Schade 10 The Public Service Academy John G Stone III 11 Why Should the Young Desire a Career in Government or Consider Running for Office Susan A MacManus and 12 Building Trust in Representative Democracy Jan Goehring Karl Kurtz Alan Rosenthal Appendixes contain resource guides the American Political Science Association s articulation statement and a declaration of the National Alliance for Civic Education BT

No Reluctant Citizens Jeremiah Clabough,Timothy Lintner,2018-06-01 American democracy is at a critical crossroads Rancor division and suspicion are the unfortunate byproducts of the contentious 2016 presidential election The election also bred a measure of civic uncertainty where citizens of all ages struggle to find and define their roles within a functioning democracy No Reluctant Citizens Teaching Civics in K 12 Classrooms is designed to help social studies teachers reinforce the centrality of civic education through a series of hands on participatory and empowering activities From civic literacy to human rights from service learning to controversial issues No Reluctant Citizens Teaching Civics in K 12 Classrooms explores an array of topics that ultimately provides K 12 students the conceptual and practical tools to become civically engaged changes in young people The Civic Mission of Schools lays out 6 promising approaches to CE which emphasize the need for instruction that is relevant to young people provides opportunities for practice and moves beyond rote learning praxis These approaches to CE yield positive lasting outcomes in students The goal of this project is to examine the association between activities regularly used in CE courses e g staging a mock election and their impact on key student outcomes This will provide evidence supporting best practices in CE Illus

Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times Beth C. Rubin, James M. Giarelli, 2011 This book explores four interrelated themes rethinking civic education in light of the diversity of U S society re examining these notions in an increasingly interconnected global context re considering the ways that civic education is researched and practiced and taking stock of where we are currently through use of an historical understanding of civic education There is a gap between theory and practice in social studies education while social studies researchers call for teachers to nurture skills of analysis decision making and participatory citizenship students in social studies classrooms are often found participating in passive tasks e g quiz and test taking worksheet completion listening to lectures rather than engaging critically with the curriculum Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times directed at students researchers and practitioners of social studies education seeks to engage this divide by offering a collection of work that puts practice at the center of research and theory

Making Citizens Beth C. Rubin, 2012 Making Citizens illustrates how social studies can recapture its civic purpose through an approach that incorporates meaningful civic learning into middle and high school classrooms

A Practical Guide for Integrating Civic Responsibility

Into the Curriculum Karla Gottlieb, Gail Robinson, 2006-06-30 From Preface This curriculum guide evolved from a national service learning project of the AACC Recognizing that an intentional civic responsibility component was missing from many service learning initiatives AACC selected six colleges from around the country to participate in a pilot project whose purpose was to identify service learning strategies to boost civic engagement and foster civic responsibility among community college students

Teaching Civic Engagement Across the Disciplines Elizabeth C. Matto, Alison Rios Millett McCartney, Elizabeth A. Bennion, Dick W. Simpson, 2017 Teaching Civic Literacy Projects Shira Eve Epstein, 2014 This practical resource shows teachers how to enact robust forms of civic education in today's schools Both instructive and thought provoking it will inspire teachers to craft curricula addressing a wide range of genuine civic problems such as those related to racial discrimination environmental damage and community health Dividing civic literacy projects into three key phases problem identification problem exploration and action the author provides concrete examples from upper elementary middle and high school classrooms to illustrate and analyze how each phase can unfold The projects ultimately provide opportunities for youth to participate in civic life while they develop essential literacy skills associated with reading writing and speaking The final chapter outlines a curriculum design process that will result in coherent and meaningful civic literacy projects driven by clear goals It includes practical tools such as a sample unit timeline an assessment chart and student worksheets that can be modified for immediate use Shira's work offers us a reflection of democratic practice in the classroom through the teaching of critical reading persuasive writing and deliberation In Teaching Civic Literacy Projects Shira invites us all to contemplate the depth of the democratic project and the possibility that schools can help uphold our democratic ideals From the Foreword by Celia Oyler professor Teachers College Columbia University This book is a gem Shira Epstein has provided invaluable assistance for teachers interested in engaging their students in the political and civic spheres in ways that build crucial literacy skills The combination of a powerful framework and rich and detailed case studies provides readers with a clear vision and helpful specific guidance for creating robust civic learning experiences for young people Diana Hess senior vice president Spencer Foundation and professor University of Wisconsin Madison Excellent civic education means encouraging young people to identify and define problems and take action That is challenging in our era of political polarization and narrow definitions of education Shira Eve Epstein provides the best practical guide for teachers who want their students to confront social problems Peter Levine Lincoln Filene Professor of Citizenship Public Affairs Tufts University Adult Civic Education Program Massachusetts.
