Raffaela Di Napoli

Difa Question Paper In 2015:

Break all the Borders Ariel I. Ahram, 2019-01-09 Since 2011 civil wars and state failure have beset the Arab world underlying the misalignment between national borders and identity in the region This book offers a unique and detailed account of the separatist movements that aim to remake those borders the southern movement in Yemen the federalists in eastern Libya the Kurdish nationalists in Syria and Iraq and the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria ISIS Instead of focusing on incumbent states the book shows how separatists claim the mantle of self determination and seek to replace a broken regional order with more legitimate and stable polities

US Economic Aid in Egypt Dina Jadallah, 2016-01-27 Economic aid is one of the cornerstones of the Egyptian American relationship and plays a significant role in promoting US policy objectives in the Middle East Focusing on the latter half of Hosni Mubarak's rule Dina Jadallah argues that through its aid policy the US has attempted to use a reforming and democratising narrative to transform Egypt into a stable market democracy that would be aligned with US interests in the region This aim has been pursued in conjunction with one that promoted a comprehensive warm peace with Israel By highlighting the opposition within Egypt to US aid Jadallah analyses the key issues that came to the fore during the 2010 11 protests in the country and led to the downfall of Mubarak Extending her analysis into the post revolutionary period the author provides interviews with regime insiders and prominent critics inside state institutions and outside who actively challenged the regime This enables her to assess the different perceptions of US aid both under Mubarak and in the current political situation contributing to an incisive analysis of modern Egypt and its relations with its superpower ally in the region

Ghosts of a Holy War Yardena Schwartz, 2024-10-01 An award winning journalist presents an even handed thoroughly researched examination of the Arab Israeli conflict and illustrates how a shocking yet little known massacre one century ago in what was then Palestine became ground zero of a war that continues to devastate A compelling story If you are going to read one book to help you understand the current Middle East tragedy this is it Yossi Klein Halevi senior fellow Shalom Hartman Institute and author of the New York Times bestseller Letters to My Palestinian Neighbor In 1929 in the sacred city of Hebron then governed by the British Mandate of Palestine there was no occupation state of Israel or settlers Jews and Muslims lived peacefully near the burial place of Abraham patriarch of the Jewish and Arab nations until one Saturday morning when nearly 70 Jewish men women and children were slaughtered by their Arab neighbors The Hebron massacre was a seminal event in the Arab Israeli conflict key to understanding its complexities The echoes of 1929 in Hamas's massacre of October 7 2023 illustrate how little has changed and how much of our perspective must change if peace is ever to come to this tortured land and its people who are destined to share it Noted journalist Yardena Schwartz draws on her extensive research and wide ranging interviews with both sides to tell a timely eye opening story She expertly weaves the war between Israel and Hamas into a historical framework demonstrating how the conflict today cannot be understood without the context of ground zero of this century old war which began long before the occupation the settlements or the state of Israel ever existed This meticulously researched and balanced examination of the Arab Israeli conflict s origins interweaves historical analysis with contemporary insights providing crucial context for understanding today s Middle East tensions Perfect for anyone who has read Yossi Klein Halevi Matti Friedman or Nathan Thrall Schwartz s work is a riveting exploration of the complex background of the Israel Palestine conflict and the ongoing struggle for peace in the region

Palestine Memories of 1948 Chris Conti,2021-05-14 Seventy one years ago in 1948 the Nakba the catastrophe overturned life in Palestine forcing three quarters of Palestinians into exile depriving them of their land their homes their belongings Today those who can bear witness to that period are becoming rare From different social backgrounds 19 men and women remember the coexistence that prevailed in Palestine the war the exile as well as the strength and resilience which they had to muster to adapt to new realities Life stories expressed in the first person are accompanied by black and white portraits where each look questions the coming generations For every Palestinian Jerusalem is charged with symbolic meaning of identity and of remembrance the more so because it has become inaccessible to most The city is made the focus of a compilation of color photographs presented for a contemporary look between shadow and light
