Washington,2001-03-07 This CliffsNotes guide includes everything you ve come to expect from the trusted experts at CliffsNotes including analysis of the most widely read literary works Toward a Literacy of Promise Linda A. Spears-Bunton,Rebecca Powell,2012-08-21 This book gives us strategies for bringing life back to school it allows us to think creatively about connecting instruction to the lives of children who have not been well served it helps us learn to value the gifts with words our children of color bring and it gives us hope for educating a generation that can change the status quo that will build the America we have yet to see the one that made that as yet unfulfilled promise of liberty and justice for all Lisa Delpit From the Foreword Toward a Literacy of Promise examines popular assumptions about literacy and challenges readers to question how it has been used historically both to empower and to oppress The authors offer an alternative view of literacy a literacy of promise that charts an emancipatory agenda for literacy instructional practices in schools Weaving together critical perspectives on pedagogy language literature and popular texts each chapter provides an in depth discussion that illuminates how a literacy of promise can be realized in school and classrooms Although the major focus is on African American middle and secondary students as a population that has experienced the consequences of inequality the chapters demonstrate general and specific applications to other populations Lights, Camera, Execution! Helen J. Knowles-Gardner,Bruce E. Altschuler,Jaclyn Schildkraut,2019-10-16 Lights Camera Execution Cinematic Portrayals of Capital Punishment fills a prominent void in the existing film studies and death penalty literature Each chapter focuses on a particular cinematic portrayal of the death penalty in the United States Some of the analyzed films are well known Hollywood blockbusters such as Dead Man Walking 1995 others are more obscure such as the made for television movie Murder in Coweta County 1983 By contrasting different portrayals where appropriate and identifying themes common to many of the studied films such as the concept of dignity and the role of race and racial discrimination the volume strengthens the reader s ability to engage in comparative analysis of topics stories and cinematic techniques Written by three professors with extensive experience teaching and writing about the death penalty film studies and criminal justice Lights Camera Execution is deliberately designed for both classroom use and general readership Claiming God Edward P. Wimberly,2003 This book attempts to answer two perennial questions What does it mean to be persons of worth and value in our contemporary culture And how can a relationship with God give us a renewed sense of our worth and value The thesis of this book is that we become persons by internalizing the conversations in which we take part but we become holy persons by giving conversation with God a privileged status over all other conversations Even though persons are labeled worthy and valuable by our culture we are judged in our culture by market values that are antithetical to Christian values In the marketplace persons are deemed worthy and honorable if they are for example a particular color age gender class or religion Persons are considered shameful if they aren t Worthy persons are invited in and shameful persons are shut out Following the African American tradition of drawing on biblical material this book will use Biblical narratives but also contemporary African American autobiography and fiction to show pastors how to enable the transformation that comes when persons learn to put conversations with God in the forefront For example the book of Job is about a person who suffered staggering losses who was shamed by well meaning friends but who still talked and listened to God Throughout the book we see Job sorting through different levels of conversation about human value and worth until God s voice breaks through with sound and fury The Book of Job gives us no answer to the reason for suffering only that God is present and that a relationship with God is always possible Wimberly offers an elegant tool to help pastors understand how persons come to a renewed sense of their value and worth Understanding how and why transformation occurs is a fundamental issue in psychology and religion that is studied in most pastoral care classes By using the term conversation Wimberly can describe complex psychological phenomena and processes simply Part of the beauty of this concept is that it can be effectively used in both religious and secular counseling contexts by professionals interested in faith development and spiritual formation

Gaines' A Lesson Before Dying, Connected the Lines Between Life, Death, and Everything in Between Samantha Nicole Rincon,2019 This thesis focuses on the nine page diary present in Ernest J Gaines A Lesson Before Dying The diary is the only real form of communication from Jefferson a young African American man who was sentenced to death for a crime he did not commit After being stripped of his manhood while on trial it became a group effort to assist this man in regaining his manhood In this thesis the diary became the topic of focus and was examined to see why it had such an important role in the novel Separated into three chapters each looking at specific moments and people that helped the diary come to fruition The first chapter focuses on key moments that helped influence the diary The second chapter focuses specifically on the content of the diary and dissects the entries Lastly the third chapter focuses on the effects of the diary not on the main character but to those involved in his journey Thus the thesis becomes centered on answering why a nine page chapter in the African American Vernacular English uncovered one s manhood and ultimately defines his journey to death less
