Standards-Based Lesson Plans for the Busy Elementary School Librarian Joyce Keeling, 2017-04-17 This helpful resource provides all new tested standard based lessons accompanied by reproducible handouts and easy to follow directions A new book by Joyce Keeling an elementary librarian and teacher with more than two decades experience Standards Based Lesson Plans for the Busy Elementary School Librarian presents many integrated lesson plans for students in each of the elementary grades kindergarten through 5th grade All lessons have been tested and refined in a school setting and they are specifically written to match the AASL Information Literacy Standards the McREL Compendium of Standards and Benchmarks and the Common Core State Standards In addition to the reproducible lesson plan worksheets the book offers in depth discussion of how best to collaborate to teach information literacy within the scope of common elementary school curricula Portrait of a Moral Agent Teacher Gillian R. Rosenberg, 2015-06-05 Teaching morally and teaching morality are understood as mutually dependent processes necessary for providing moral education or the communication of messages and lessons on what is right good and virtuous in a student s character This comprehensive and contextualized volume offers anecdotes and experiences on how an elementary schoolteacher envisions enacts and reflects on the ethical teaching and learning of her students By employing a personally developed form of moral education that is not defined by any particular philosophical or theoretical orientation this volume relates that classroom based moral education can therefore be conceived of and promoted as moral agency Accentuated by the teacher s voice to offer the experience of being in the classroom this volume enables others to transfer relevant practices to their own teaching contexts The Kindergarten for Teachers and Parents ,1890
