Bradford Barbara Intonation In Context Intonation:

Intonation in Context Audio Cassette Barbara Bradford, 1988-04-21 Intonation in Context is for upper intermediate and advanced learners of English who want to improve their intonation. It aims to make learners aware of the main features of intonation and provides enjoyable activities for both controlled and freer practice in a range of conversational situations. Intonation is presented as a system which has an important communicative function in any interaction between speaker and listener. Learners first explore the meaning conveyed by the parts of this system before going on to a variety of production exercises. The book is intended to be used alongside any general coursebook to provide a systematic and accessible introduction to this often neglected area of pronunciation. The easy to follow explanations assume no specialist knowledge of the subject and the accompanying CD provides clear models making this an excellent choice for both classroom use and self study.

INTONATION IN CONTEXT TEACHER'S B. Barbara Bradford, 1996 Studies in Contrastive Linguistics Cristina Mourón Figueroa, Teresa Moralejo Gárate, Antonio Alvarez Rodriguez, 2006 Intonation in Context. Student's Book Barbara Bradford, 1988 Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics (GURT) 1991: Linguistics and Language Pedagogy James E. Alatis, 1992-04-01 Intonation in context, 1986 English Pronunciation Models Katarzyna Dziubalska-Kołaczyk, Joanna Przedlacka, 2008. The choice of a pronunciation model for the 21st century learner has become a major issue of debate among applied linguists concerned with teaching English. The standard pronunciation models Received Pronunciation and General American have recently been confronted with a new proposal of a Lingua Franca Core LFC or English as a Lingua Franca ELF put forward as a didactic priority in teaching English pronunciation to foreigners. This volume, which includes selected contributions from the Pozna Linguistic Meetings of 2003 and 2004, does not intend to present yet another model but sets out to place the teaching and learning of English pronunciation in the context of the 21st century. As the needs of English users are clearly changing fast in the globalizing world, the question is to what extent, if at all, models of pronunciation have been able to keep up with them and whether they in fact should do so. Thus, key issues in the integration of pronunciation into English as L2 curricula are explored.
