Caps 2014 Question Papers And Memos Of Term 1 Test Economics:

The Parent Trap Nate G. Hilger, 2023-04-04 How parents have been set up to fail and why helping them succeed is the key to achieving a fair and prosperous society Few people realize that raising children is the single largest industry in the United States Yet this vital work receives little political support and its primary workers parents labor in isolation If they ask for help they are made to feel inadequate there is no centralized organization to represent their interests and there is virtually nothing spent on research and development to help them achieve their goals It s almost as if parents are set up to fail and the result is lost opportunities that limit children s success and make us all worse off In The Parent Trap Nate Hilger combines cutting edge social science research revealing historical case studies and on the ground investigation to recast parenting as the hidden crucible of inequality Parents are expected not only to care for their children but to help them develop the skills they will need to thrive in today s socioeconomic reality but most parents including even the most caring parents on the planet are not trained in skill development and lack the resources to get help How do we fix this The solution Hilger argues is to ask less of parents not more America should consider child development a public investment with a monumental payoff We need a program like Medicare call it Familycare to drive this investment To make it happen parents need to organize to wield their political power on behalf of children who will always be the largest bloc of disenfranchised people in this country The Parent Trap exposes the true costs of our society s unrealistic expectations around parenting and lays out a profoundly hopeful blueprint for reform

Failure Up Close Jay P. Greene, Michael Q. McShane, 2018-01-17 For many reasons failure in education reform is rarely admitted Even though it is incredibly hard work to try and improve the enormous and diverse American education system because there are political consequences of admitting that a particular effort did not live up to its promises and pressure from philanthropic funders to show success unsuccessful efforts are often swept under the rug or papered over with public relations efforts that avoid wrestling with the tough realities of educational improvement This doesn t help anyone As any educator will tell you failure is an essential part of learning Insofar as education reform needs to be a learning movement itself it has to be able to admit where it has failed and learn from it Failure Up Close engages a select group of scholars from across the ideological spectrum to examine particular education reform efforts of recent years that have not succeeded and offer lessons for school and system improvement that can be learned from them Rather than view failure as negative this volume looks at failure as an opportunity to learn and grow In fact the editors endeavored to find authors that would analyze reforms for which they had some fundamental sympathy The goal is not to bash particular efforts or castigate their supporters but rather to help those supporters understand how to do what they do better and ultimately do better for children

Limiting Base Erosion Erik Pinetz, Erich Schaffer, 2017-08-30 Limiting base erosion from different viewpoints Hybrid mismatch arrangements CFC rules transfer pricing rules Limiting Base Erosion the general topic for the master theses of the part time LL M program 2015 2017 has been one of the most controversial topics in international tax law ever since the initiation of the OECD BEPS Project in 2013 Even though the final reports of the 15 BEPS Actions were released by the OECD in as early as October 2015 the question how to effectively target base erosion practices still has not lost any of its topicality Following the efforts of the OECD in developing a new international tax environment the focus of attention has now partly shifted to the OECD Member countries that have to properly implement the OECD recommendations in their domestic laws as well as in their tax treaty practice In this respect a comprehensive analysis in the literature of all the issues related to base erosion proves to be of the utmost importance in order to provide practical guidance to the Member countries during that the process of implementation This book deals especially with four key areas of interest Limiting base erosion by neutralizing the effects of hybrid mismatch arrangements Limiting base erosion by strengthening CFC rules Measures against base erosion via interest deductions and other financial payments Limiting base erosion by improving transfer pricing rules On that basis 27 concrete topics were chosen in order to address the four key areas of interest from different viewpoints Base erosion and the challenges they present read more in Limiting Base Erosion

Crashed Adam Tooze, 2018-08-07 WINNER OF THE LIONEL GELBER PRIZE A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2018 ONE OF THE ECONOMIST S BOOKS OF THE YEAR A NEW YORK TIMES CRITICS TOP BOOK An intelligent explanation of the mechanisms that produced the crisis and the response to it One of the great strengths of Tooze s book is to demonstrate the deeply intertwined nature of the European and American financial systems The New York Times Book Review From the prizewinning economic historian and author of Shutdown and The Deluge an eye opening reinterpretation of the 2008 economic crisis and its ten year aftermath as a global event that directly led to the shockwaves being felt around the world today We live in a world where dramatic shifts in the domestic and global economy command the headlines from rollbacks in US banking regulations to tariffs that may ignite international trade wars But current events have deep roots and the key to navigating today s roiling policies lies in the events that started it all the 2008 economic crisis and its aftermath Despite initial attempts to downplay the crisis as a local incident what happened on Wall Street beginning in 2008 was in fact a dramatic caesura of global significance that spiraled around the world from the financial markets of the UK and Europe to the factories and dockyards of Asia the Middle East and Latin America forcing a rearrangement of global governance With a historian s eye for detail connection and consequence Adam Tooze brings the story right up to today s negotiations actions and threats a much needed perspective on a global catastrophe and its long term consequences
