This textbook is suitable for university students and executives and also for any person who wishes to gain a broad understanding of business communication and public speaking. Zahed Mannan examines both the historical roots as well as contemporary theories of communication to give the reader an introduction to the theory and practice of communication. He then applies the principles of communication to the public speaking context and guides the reader through the steps in the writing process. The book ends with a part that deals specifically with real-life examples of business communication. The text's comprehensive topic coverage provides clear guidance for all communication practices in business and organizations. Centered on the notion that business communication can influence the interpretation of issues and events, this text provides students and executives with practical tips, contemporary applications, and emphasizes on realities of daily career life. BUSINESS COMMUNICATION has been written and designed to fulfill the requirements of current and future communication needs in the social and political context of Bangladesh as well as the requirements of outcomes-based education. It is hoped that this book will meet the requirements of teaching training and development programs. Besides the text, it will provide valuable guidance to any individual who is keen on improving his/her communication skills. A Study of Readability and Other Factors of Selected Business Communications Dean Andrew Peterson, 1959 Strategic Communication in Business and the Professions Dan O'Hair, Gustav Friedrich, Lynda Dee Dixon, 2005.
