Anna Pilz, Whitney Standlee

Egerton University September 2015 intake:

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style

Irish women's writing, 1878-1922 Anna Pilz, Whitney Standlee, 2016-07-01 Irish women writers entered the British and international publishing scene in unprecedented numbers in the period between 1878 and 1922 Literary history is only now beginning to give them the attention they deserve for their contributions to the literary landscape of Ireland which has included far more women writers with far more diverse identities than hitherto acknowledged This collection of new essays by leading scholars explores how women writers including Emily Lawless L T Meade Katharine Tynan Lady Gregory Rosa Mulholland Ella Young and Beatrice Grimshaw used their work to advance their own private and public political concerns through astute manoeuvrings both in the expanding publishing industry and against the partisan expectations of an ever growing readership The chapters investigate their dialogue with a contemporary politics that included the topics of education cosmopolitanism language empire economics philanthropy socialism the marriage market the publishing industry readership s the commercial market and employment
