today's life is not war poverty or money but it's more intrinsic it's not realizing how fragile you are When you give yourself to God and you live your life through love you quickly realize how fragile things are This is not a bad thing It's paramount that you realize your fragileness because when you don't you take everything around you for granted and your life becomes a never ending struggle forward until the day you collapse Even more when you take everything for granted you won't appreciate the beauty of God the love that is all around you hiding in every corner If you want to ignite your faith with God and become closer to the very essence of life love there are lessons to be learned from the Bible that can change your life around not months from now but today the moment you start reading and using the lessons What follows are powerful lessons from the Bible that anyone can understand and use When your faith in God is strong the things that you can accomplish are incredible As a byproduct you will be able to inspire others to live a life of love Join others and grab your copy today The Sunday School World ,1892 Standard lesson commentary Fehl Jim,1985 Bible Study Guide -
