The Eternal Life of Stuff Becky Civjan, Tony Nauroth, 2024-05-20 Imagine sitting in a cafe sharing a running conversation with a good friend about all the wonderful things life has brought to your table You re probably also sharing a piece of freshly baked apple pie as you discuss this book that both of you have just finished reading All the stuff in your life that you ve been holding onto becomes part of the conversation Collections of comic books closets filled with long forgotten but still loved stuff and even the rock collection in the back of your sock drawer comes alive through the stories that The Eternal Life of Stuff hands to you Where has all your stuff gone Did you give it to charity or sell it at a yard sale Maybe you simply lost it All this is what this book is about Even more it illuminates something of greater value than the things you ve collected This book shines the bright light of conversation into the sometimes dim corners of memory The Eternal Life of Stuff sometimes sad but mostly uplifting and full of humor is about experiencing the energy of memory During a lull in this cafe conversation your friend asks Please pass the sugar You happily comply and as you do your hands briefly touch Yet it is enough and your conversation continues This book is that sweet You both get up to leave and the conversation lingers in your memories adding a beautiful layer of depth and meaning to your friendship This is the really good stuff that binds you together It is the stuff that reminds you what is important and what is not the stuff that lives not just in the hearts of these two imagined friends but in all hearts eternally Insatiable Shobhaa Dé, 2023-01-17 I promise not to be three things profound pedantic and pretentious I promise not to be three things profound pedantic and pretentious says Shobhaa De as she begins her heart warming book It s a promise India s most beloved writer delivers on in her irreverent memoir about the
