Edward Burne-Jones Maria Tsaneva, Blago Kirov, 2014-12-31 This Art Book with Foreword and annotated reproductions by Maria Tsaneva contains 199 selected drawings and paintings of Sir Edward Burne Jones Sir Edward Burne Jones was the greatest painter of the second generation Pre Raphaelites His aim in art is best given in some of his own words written to a friend I mean by a picture a beautiful romantic dream of something that never was never will be in a light better than any light that ever shone in a land no one can define or remember only desire and the forms divinely beautiful and then I wake up with the waking of Brynhild He considered that art should be valued as an object of beauty engendering a sensual response rather than for the story or moral implicit in the subject matter In many ways this was antithetical to the ideals of Ruskin and the early Pre Raphaelites The earth the sky the rocks the trees the men and women of Burne Jones are not those of this world but they are themselves a world consistent with itself and having therefore its own reality RILA, International repertory of the literature of art ,1977 The Art Quarterly of the National Art Collections Fund ,2008 Books in Print ,1977
