Slowing Time Barbara Mahany, 2014-10-07 Barbara Mahany believes the sacred is all around within finger's reach here to be gathered culled collected through the simple yet complex art of paying attention of savoring the moment of cultivating stillness Making room for the God and illuminating the Godly specks in the everyday Noticing the seen revealing the unseen and pinpointing the divine in both The book sifts through the terrain of three particular landscapes where the author most often encounters the stirrings of the Divine under heaven's dome on the front lines of the homefront and in the unspooling of the seasons The most essential prayer often is the life closely examined held up to the light By probing deeply the nooks and crannies of the home front the author points out that the reader need not venture far to find what matters most And the questions stirred will linger long after the page is turned

Baking from the Heart Michael J. Rosen, 2004 Baking is about memories recipes handed down from generation to generation and tastes that conjure childhood think of Proust's madeleines or your mom's chocolate cake Sweets are often bound up in our emotional life as adults too they're how we reward ourselves or our children how we celebrate holidays birthdays and special occasions and how we honor guests In Baking from the Heart more than fifty of the nation's preeminent bakers share their recipes for cookies, cakes and other dessert favorites and the memories of why they hold that recipe dear. From the Apple Snacking Spice Cake that Joanna Chang made her fourth grade teacher to show her how much she loved her to the Polvorones that were a Sunday after church treat in Miguel Ravago's home, these are recipes and stories to treasure. When James Beard Award winner Greg Patent was a teenager, he won a trip to New York City to compete in the Pillsbury Bake Off with his Cherry Apricot Coconut Bars. Forty years later, his mother earned a place in that same competition with her Walnut Fudge Bars. World renowned chocolatier Jacques Torres tucked a few pints of hand-picked Michigan blueberries into his luggage so he could again make Blueberry Dame Blanche, the jam-filled cookies he made when he was a child in France with his aging mother. For her son Gio's first Valentine's Day at school, Food TV's Gale Gand concocted Marshmallow Heart Throbs, a cupcake he could cut into the shape of a heart. When Jimmy Schmidt's family vacationed in Wisconsin, his contribution to his mother's Black Walnut Pound Cake were the walnuts he picked and shelled with his siblings, aided by their father who would crack the hulls by driving over them in his '55 Chevy. Like many of the other contributors, Jimmy Schmidt serves up two recipes with reminiscences: the walnut cake and his Blueberry Slump for our delectation. Baking from the Heart is also sweet inspiration for anyone who wants to join in The Great American Bake Sale. When Share Our Strength, the nation's preeminent hunger-fighting organization, joined with PARADE magazine to launch The Great American Bake Sale in 2003, the country's response was overwhelming: nearly half a million people baked, bought or sold, raising over a million dollars to end childhood hunger. More information appears inside. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book benefit Share Our Strength, one of the nation's preeminent anti-hunger agencies.
