Codependency and Healing from a Narcissistic Relationship
Melody Miller, 2020-08-11

Have you ever heard about codependency? Do you know that it can entail serious consequences? Do you know how to recognize a Narcissistic Partner and how to deal with him in a relationship? Keep reading to discover more about it. Getting this book is a significant part of your journey to prevent codependency, heal or cure it, to engage in healthier relationships in your life. I know that moving away from codependency and into healthier behavioral patterns is not easy and can often be quite painful, but it is crucial. We will explore principles and healing techniques of codependency with the support of licensed therapists, counselors, psychologists, doctors, and psychological studies from around the world. You will discover what a healthy relationship truly looks like and why your current relationship may not be healthy and fulfilling. Through reading this book, you are going to gain access to what numerous experts consider to be the necessary steps for any codependent to overcome their codependency. Narcissism and codependence do not just erupt in adulthood. These are behaviors that start from childhood. Unlike the same phenomenon in adults, childhood emotional negligence is discussed, and strategies for overcoming its effects explained in adequate detail. Emotional abuse is a form of behavioral control, but you can free yourself from this type of suffering. If you have endured any kind of violence, you might not have shown your real feelings because of your lack of emotional maturity. Emotional abusers are not going to let go because there is still the psychic cord.
