Sociality Revisited? The Use of the Internet and Mobile Phones in Urban Cameroon Bettina Anja Frei, 2013 This book draws on the perspectives of non migrants and urban youth in Bamenda in the Northwest region of Cameroon as well as on the views of Cameroonian migrants in Switzerland to explore the meaning and role of New Media in the negotiation of sociality in transnational migration New Media facilitated connectedness serve as a privileged lens through which Cameroonians home and away scrutinise and mediate sociality In this rich ethnography Bettina Frei describes how the internet and mobile phones are adopted by migrants and their non migrant counterparts in order to maintain transnational relationships and how the specific medialities of these communication technologies in turn impact on transnational sociality

Contrary to popular presumptions that New Media are experienced as mainly connecting and enabling this study reveals that in a transnational context in particular New Media serve to mediate tensions in transnational social ties The expectations of being connected go hand in hand with an awareness of social and geographical distance and separation Achieving the Circular Economy Jenny Palm,Nancy Bocken,2021-05-20 Urbanisation and climate change are pushing cities to find novel pathways leading to a sustainable future The urban context may be viewed as a new experimentation space to accelerate the transition to a circular economy Urban symbiosis and the circular economy are emerging concepts attracting more and more attention within the urban context Moreover new business models are emerging around sharing and peer to peer practices which are challenging existing roles of actors in society These developments are having an important impact on the flows of resources and the use of the city infrastructure and each research area has taken a different perspective in the analysis of such impacts This Special Issue aims to explore what a circular city could constitute and how and why cities engage in circularity This Special Issue includes seven high quality papers on the theories and practices of circular cities Actors concepts methods tools the barriers to and enablers of circular cities are discussed and a solid base and inspiration for the future development of circular cities are provided Laws of the State of Kansas Kansas,1917 General Laws of the State of Kansas Kansas,1917 Young Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Katherine V. Gough,Thilde Langevang,2016-03-02 Young people in sub Saharan Africa are growing up in rapidly changing social and economic environments which produce high levels of un and underemployment Job creation through entrepreneurship is currently being promoted by international organizations governments and NGOs as a key solution despite there being a dearth of knowledge about youth entrepreneurship in an African context This book makes an important contribution by exploring the nature of youth entrepreneurship in Ghana Uganda and Zambia It provides new insights into conceptual and methodological discussions of youth entrepreneurship as well as presenting original empirical data Drawing on quantitative and qualitative research conducted under the auspices of a collaborative interdisciplinary and comparative research project it highlights the opportunities and challenges young people face in setting up and running businesses Divided into a number of clear sections each with its own introduction and conclusion the book considers the nature of youth entrepreneurship at the national level in both urban and rural areas in specific sectors including mobile telephony mining handicrafts and tourism and analyses how key factors such as microfinance social capital and entrepreneurship education affect youth entrepreneurship New light is shed on the multi faceted nature of youth entrepreneurship and a convincing case is presented for a more nuanced understanding of the term entrepreneurship and the situation faced by many African youth today This book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars interested in youth entrepreneurship including in development studies business studies youth studies and geography as well as to development practitioners and policy makers The Open Access title has now been added to the Open Access page <http://www.tandfebooks.com/page/openaccess> Biennial Report Kansas.
