The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror 19 Stephen Jones, 2011-08-04 Here is the latest edition of the world's premier annual showcase of horror and dark fantasy fiction. It features some of the very best short stories and novellas by today's masters of the macabre including Neil Gaiman, Brian Keene, Elizabeth Massie, Glen Hirshberg, Peter Atkins, and Tanith Lee. The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror also features the most comprehensive yearly overview of horror around the world, lists of useful contact addresses, and a fascinating necrology. It is the one book that is required reading for every fan of macabre fiction. PRAISE FOR THE SERIES: Well-crafted celebration of a continuously inventive genre. SFX Magazine. The must-have annual anthology for horror fans. Time Out. An essential volume for horror readers. Locus. In an age where genre fiction is often just reheated pastiche, the Best New Horror series continues to break from the herd, consistently raising the bar of quality and ingenuity. Rue Morgue. Brilliantly edited and most instructively introduced by legendary anthologist Stephen Jones. Realms of Fantasy. One of horror's best. Publishers Weekly. Theology and the Films of Christopher Nolan Joel Mayward, 2025-10-30 This work of theological film criticism provides an analysis of filmmaker Christopher Nolan's entire filmography from Following (1998) to Oppenheimer (2023). Though his films are noticeably lacking in representations of religion or references to God, Nolan's postsecular cinema is nevertheless worthy of our theological consideration as it contains valuable theological and philosophical insights. Indeed, this is the central claim of Theology and the Films of Christopher Nolan. Christopher Nolan's films can and should be considered works of cinematic philosophical theology; they are doing theology and philosophy through the medium of film as they explore what it means to be human in relation to the transcendent. This book identifies the deep parallels and resonances between Nolan's films and the works of philosopher Paul Ricoeur and theologian St. Augustine. Like Nolan's cinema, Theology and the Films of Christopher Nolan is both intellectually stimulating and highly accessible, satisfying the interests of both scholars and popular audiences alike. Dark Interval Rosalind Cornwall, 1934 Pitch Dark Renata Adler, 2013-03-19 A strange, thrilling novel about desperate love, paranoia, and heartbreak by one of America's most singular writers. What's new? What else? What next? What's happened here? Pitch Dark is a book about love. Kate Ennis is poised at a critical moment in an affair with a married man. The complications and contradictions pursue her from a house in rural Connecticut to a brownstone apartment in New York City to a small island off the coast of Washington to a pitch-black night in backcountry Ireland. Composed in the style of Renata Adler's celebrated novel Speedboat and displaying her keen journalist's eye and mastery of language, both simple and sublime, Pitch Dark is a bold and astonishing work of art. The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror, 2008 Blood Dark Louis Guilloux, 2017-10-17 Set during World War I, this monumental philosophical novel about human despair inspired Albert Camus' own writing and prefigured the greater existential movement. Blood Dark tells the story of a brilliant philosopher trapped in a provincial town and of his spiraling descent into self-destruction.
